A-plus style

Affordable, easy to build, with bold, fun architecture, A-frame cabins that were all the rage in the 1950s–70s are back in style again, filling our Instagram feeds.

This remodeled 1970s cabin in Inverness, California, is the perfect backdrop for our summer collections. Our classic mid-century and modern furniture—from Halden’s sleek update of the picnic table to the Acadia lounge chair’s comfortably angled lines—feels right at home here.

my home is my design lab

"For us, home is not a noun, but a verb—an always-evolving space."

—Eric Trine

Designer, Amigo Modern and West Elm LOCAL

Designer Eric Trine, whose furniture we sell in our LOCAL collection, and his wife Heather bought this 1954 ranch house in Long Beach, California, a year and a half ago. They then proceeded to gut-renovate it, tearing down the walls between the kitchen, dining area and living room and creating a completely open space. "Our lifestyle is extremely casual," he says. "I can work on my laptop at the table while the girls are coloring, then we can move to the couch to read or to the island for a snack. It all flows together kind of seamlessly. My home is my design incubator. It's not about designing the perfect life, but how real life informs my design."

Eric's design thinking for family living

don't call it a dining table

It's an everything table. It's for working, crafting, snacktime, homework. In our open space, the rug and chandelier help define it as the "dining" area.

---

openness = togetherness

We don't have any desks in the girls' rooms. We want them to be out here with us, and to keep the space as open and versatile as possible. There aren't a lot of dividers, just unity.

furniture is meant to be used

And with kids, "use" is meant liberally. A sofa is a hub for imagination—we like to pile up the pillows and blankets and make a "rest nest"—a cozy pod for reading and relaxing.

Come along on a video tour as Eric shows us around his house at westelm.com/erictrine.

up your outdoor entertaining game

make it portable

A rolling bar cart or large tray makes it easier to bring dishes, food & drinks outside, saving you endless trips. A cart makes a great bar, serving station for a buffet or prep space for the grill.

make it lightweight

Stock up on stackable, unbreakable melamine dinnerware & acrylic glasses. They're nicer and more eco-friendly than disposable paper & plastic, and ours are dishwasher-safe. Our acrylic wine glasses convert from stem to stemless!

make it romantic

Add ambience with candlelight and string lights. Lanterns, hurricanes and votives shelter flames in the breeze. Use citronella candles to banish the bugs.

UPS Standard Shipping and Processing

Our Front Door Delivery shipping and processing fees cover the processing, handling, packing and delivery of your order. Most purchases shipped from our warehouses will arrive within 4–5 business days. If there is a delay, we will notify you by mail or email. Some items sent directly from our suppliers may take longer, and items ordered together may not arrive in the same box. Items shipped to Alaska, Hawaii and U.S. territories (including Puerto Rico) are delivered by UPS or USPS with an additional charge of $10. Some heavy or oversized items cannot be shipped outside the 48 contiguous states. For rush delivery within the contiguous 48 states, add $17.50 per address.

Unlimited Flat Rate Delivery

no extra charge—for oversized furniture and select fragile items. With White Glove, your order is brought to the room of your choice, carefully unpacked and fully assembled, with all packaging materials removed after. Available in the 48 contiguous states only.
