TRIBUTE GOODS

Born of an appreciation for images and textiles that touch a core within, Tribute Goods is a luxury Italian fine linen company based in Houston, Texas. Residential interior designer, Karen Pulaski, launched the company with the intention of sharing her love of art and beauty through creative collaboration with fine artists, seasoned linen purveyors and Italian graphic designers. Meaningful themes and exquisite artwork continue to evolve into distinct collections thru digital printing on a canvas of the finest Italian textiles. Tribute Goods has been honored with the NY Now “Best New Product Award”, Neiman Marcus Spring Home Catalog cover, Paper City “Best in Product Design”, and featured editorials in Traditional Home, Luxe Interiors & Design and Modern Luxury. As a tribute to our community, Tribute Goods donates 10% of profits to organizations supporting the arts, education and AIDS research.

KAREN PULASKI

Pulaski has an interior design degree from the University of Texas and has worked with private clients in NYC, Los Angeles and Texas for over two decades. She has served as a trustee, board member, and event chairperson for numerous Houston organizations, including the Museum of Fine Arts Houston, the Contemporary Arts Museum Houston, the Children’s Museum Houston and the AIDS Foundation. Merging her passions, she often pairs clients with emerging artists to give spaces depth by weaving together historic and contemporary works of art and design.

“These linens go far beyond style. They weave art and community into every lovely square inch. And beautifully so! I love how dreamy they feel against my cheek at night, how smooth they are pulled from the dryer and, most especially, how a percentage of every sale goes back to invest in charities that matter.”
-Windsor Smith

“Ultimately Pulaski achieved just what she was seeking: a quality product that’s both significant and sublime”
-PaperCity Magazine

“The art of the bed has a new master; Karen Pulaski, founder of Tribute Goods.”
-Krissa Rossbund, Senior Style Editor, Traditional Home

“Tribute Goods brings fine art to bedrooms across the country”
-Luxe Interiors and+Design

“It’s said that we spend one third of our lives sleeping and I believe high quality bedding is the ultimate at-home luxury, which is why Tribute Goods is my go-to source for my clients’ linens. I love working with Karen and her team because they offer unique, yet classic designs that allow the bed to serve as a piece of art.”
-Marie Flanigan
