J. BASHFORD BISHOP

As a minister your message has been challenging and inspiring—
As an instructor your teaching has been wholesome and practical—
As a friend your fellowship has been warm and sincere—
To you, J. Bashford Bishop, we fondly dedicate the 1947 CUP!

... he took the cup, when he had supped, saying:
This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.
For as often as ye . . . drink this cup, ye do shew
the Lord's death till he come. (1 Cor. 11:25, 26)

Within the Cup of Gethsemane lies the blessing of our heritage. When Christ drank the bitter, distasteful Cup, He secured for us pardon, peace, and access to the throne of grace. Through His agony and death we are now joint heirs with Him and partakers of the Father's eternal blessings.

It is in remembrance of the death of our Lord that the 1947 CUP is presented to you. May it take you back to the Cross and reveal to you the victory obtained there through the blood of Christ; but most of all, as you drink of its contents, may it create in you a greater thirst for your full inheritance, a thirst that will never leave you satisfied until together we have entered our heavenly home to behold our King in all His beauty and in all His glory.

Theme

Against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world we stand with our faces as flint, proudly guarding our priceless heritage.
Around us fly the fiery darts of satanic opposition, but steadfastly we raise the shield of faith to withstand their fierce attack. Though the enemy comes in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord lifts up a standard against him. Our heritage shall live on — firm, certain, and secure; for with the help of the Lord we shall defend the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. Then with Paul of old we can say, "We have fought a good fight, we have finished our course, we have kept the faith."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, the Lord Jesus Christ, do hereby bequeath to thee, a sinful world, salvation from sin through the shedding of My blood. I have redeemed thee from the curse of the law, being made a curse for thee; for it is written, "Cursed is everyone that hangeth on a tree." I was oppressed and I was afflicted, yet I opened not My mouth. I was brought as a lamb to the slaughter; and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so I opened not My mouth. I was taken from prison and from judgment. Who shall declare My generation? For I was cut off out of the land of the living; for thy transgression was I stricken. And I made My grave with the wicked and with the rich in My death, because I had done no violence, neither was any deceit in My mouth. Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise me; He hath put Me to grief. I gave Myself for thee that I might purify unto Myself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Thou was not redeemed with corruptible things, but with My precious blood; neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by My own blood I, in My glorified body, passed into the heavenly holiest place where I intercede for thee. If thou believest on Me, call upon Me, and thou shalt be saved. Him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out.

To you of a broken and diseased body, I bequeath My healing balm. I am the Lord that healeth thee. I was wounded for thy transgressions. I was bruised for thine iniquities. The chastisement of thy peace was upon Me, and with My stripes thou art healed. I forgive all thine iniquities, and I heal all thy diseases. While upon this earth, I went about all Galilee, teaching in the synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing all manner of disease among the people. They brought unto Me people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatic, and those that had the palsy; and I healed them. One who was deaf and dumb was brought unto Me. I healed him insomuch that he both spoke and heard. With Me nothing is impossible. According to thy faith be it unto thee. Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in My name. The prayer of faith shall save the sick, and I will raise him up. Pray one for another that thou mayest be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. I have heard thy prayer; I have seen thy tears; behold, I will heal thee.

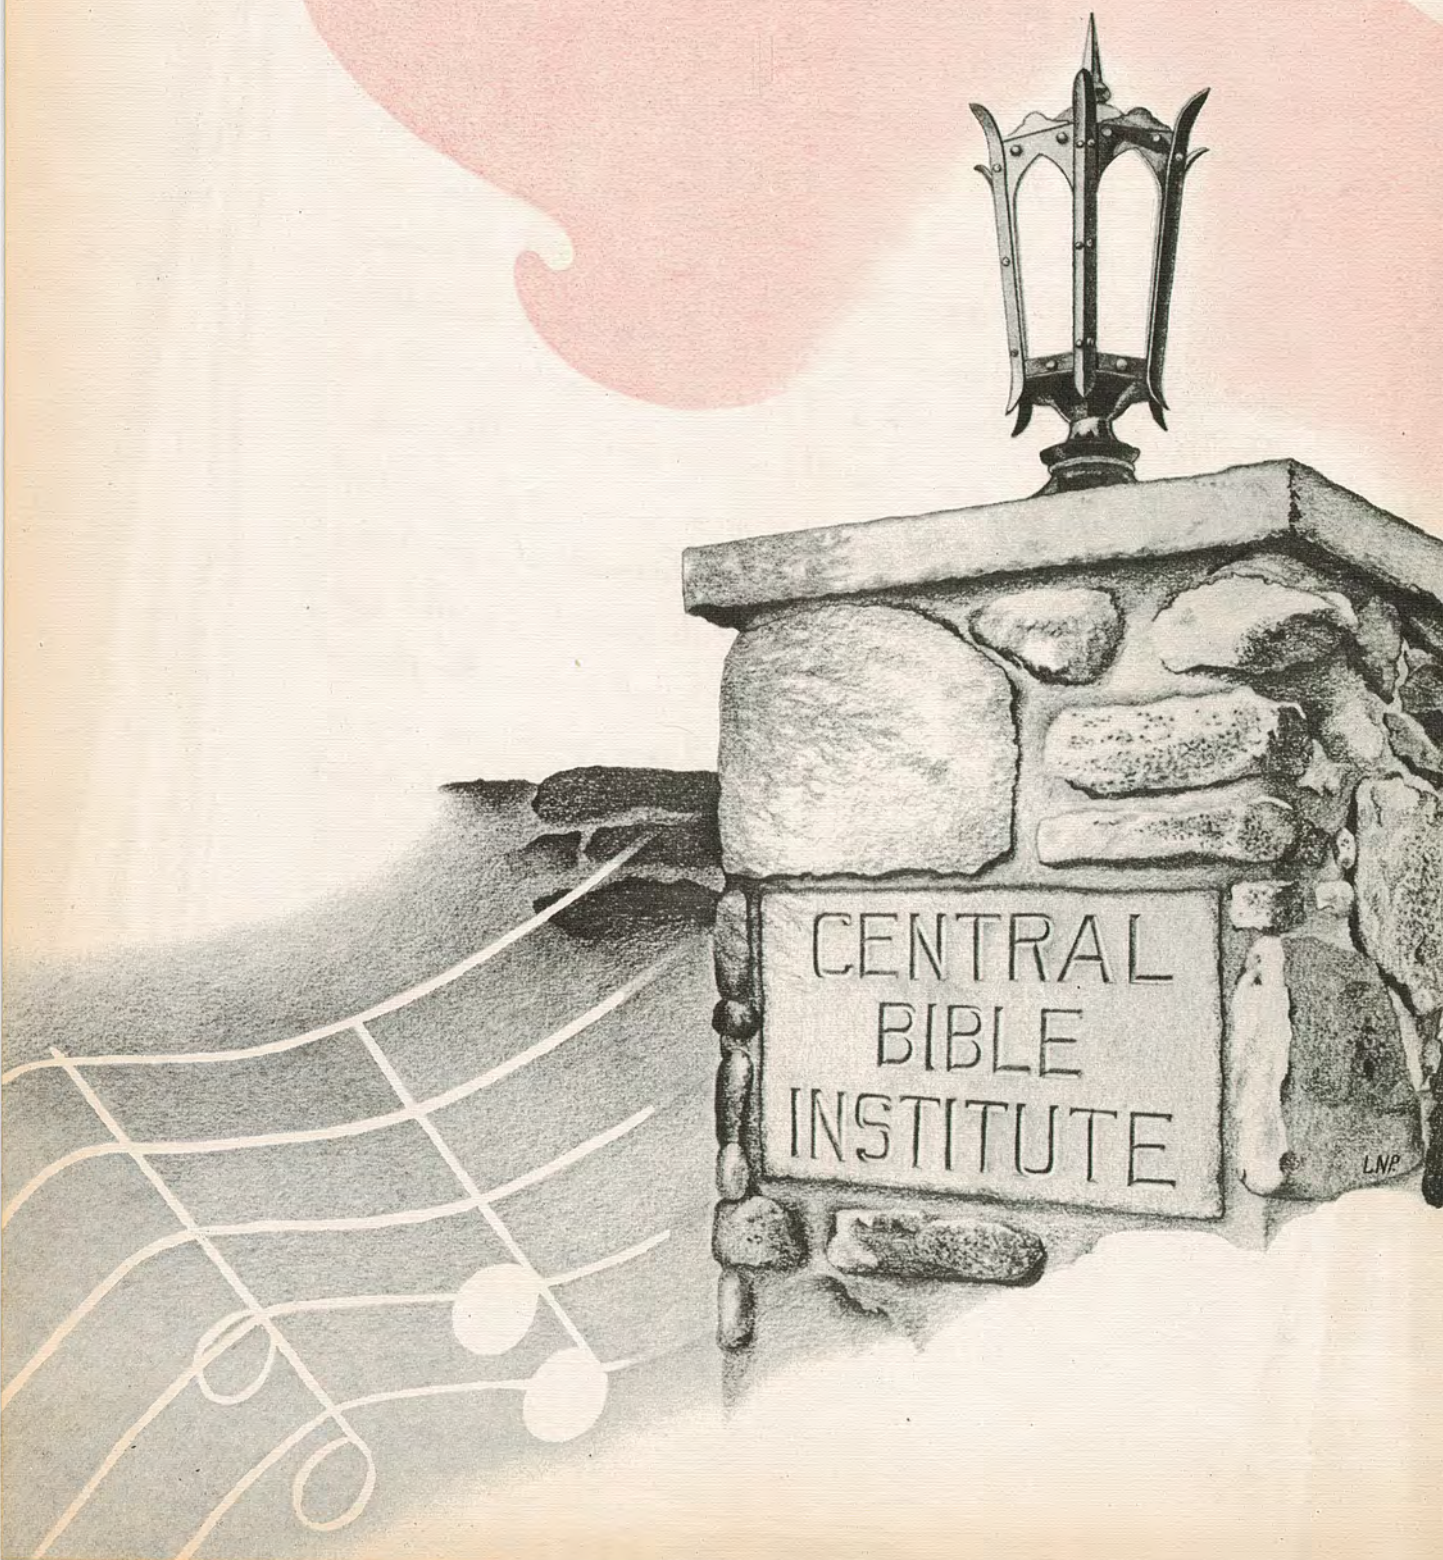

Though I be not present with you in bodily form, unto you who follow after Me, I bequeath another Comforter, the Holy Ghost. My forerunner, John the Baptist, did preach, "I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance, but He that cometh after me is mightier than I, Whose shoes I am not worthy to bear. He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire." Repent and be baptized everyone of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be witnesses unto Me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. The Holy Ghost shall teach you all things and bring to your remembrance whatsoever I have said unto you. He will guide you into all truth; for He shall not speak of Himself, but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak. He will show you things to come. The prophet Joel did prophesy, "And it shall come to pass afterward that I will pour out My spirit upon all flesh. Your sons and your daughters shall see visions. Your old men shall dream dreams. Your young men shall see visions. Also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit." If ye then, being evil know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him.

Unto all men who do believe in Me, do I bequeath the hope of My second coming. I was once offered to bear the sins of many, but now unto those who look for Me shall I appear the second time without sin unto salvation. In My Father's house are many mansions. If it were not so, I would have told you. I have gone to prepare a place for you; and since I have gone to prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto Myself that where I am, there ye may be also. Beloved, now are ye the sons of God, and it doth not appear what ye shall be; but ye know that when I shall come, ye shall be like Me; for ye shall see Me as I am. As the lightning cometh out of the east and shineth even unto the west, so shall also My coming be. Of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but My Father only. Be ye therefore ready also, for I come at an hour when ye think not. Be ye also patient. Stablish your hearts, for My coming draweth nigh. I shall come in the glory of My Father with My angels. Then I shall reward every man according to his works. Behold, I come quickly! Hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

WILLIAM I. EVANS

OUR

Ever faithful in contending for the necessity of spiritual as well as intellectual knowledge is our principal, William I. Evans. Through his Christian leadership, godly council, and disciplinary action we have come to know him as a real father, one whose life has been charged with the Spirit of God and filled with devotion to Him. The responsibilities and duties of his office are never so great that he cannot give heed to the problem of an individual. Without his office door each day can be found a group of students waiting for private sessions—some desiring schedule arrangements, some requesting spiritual advice, still others waiting to be anointed for a physical need. Whatever their problem, through the instructive, prayerful guidance of Brother Evans they find an adequate solution.

PRINCIPAL

The omniscient, omnipotent, omnipresent, immutable, eternal God has been the essence of his teaching ministry. In class one is often seized by a feeling of fear when Brother Evans removes his glasses and desires an answer to his question. The feeling of fear is temporary, but the reality of the truth revealed in the answer to his question can never be forgotten.

Brother Evans' life in itself has proved to be a real ministry in exhorting others to "correct thinking, overflowing living, and passionate praying." In him we have found our ideal of highest excellence.

MOTHER

BOWIE

As "Home is not home without Mother" so Central Bible Institute would not be like home to us were it not for our C.B.I. mother, Mrs. Eleanor G. Bowie. Mother Bowie, our kind, sympathetic Dean of Women, is one whose life is filled with the beauty and love of Christ. A student fully realizes these motherly characteristics which are so prevalent in her life when he or she is "put on the carpet." The tasks and problems of a day are multitudinous and varied, but Mother Bowie has proved that "the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save, neither His ear heavy that it cannot hear." She has found power in intercessory prayer—power that manifested through her life can cure the aches and still the troubles in the hearts of her girls. Her life presents a challenge of daring to trust in God. Mother Bowie's gracious smile, cheerful way, and helpful counsel have won for her the love of all her C.B.I. children scattered throughout the world.

An English accent, touched with a pleasant smile, characterizes our Dean of Men, Mr. John Johnson. He is one of those individuals whose brokenness of spirit and vision of the darkness of the world leave an indelible impression on the lives of his associates. The love in his heart for the lost was not acquired over night, but by constant communion with his Saviour Whom he has faithfully served for sixteen years on the mission field. The deep concern which he has for each of the young men students and his daily fellowship with them enable him to carry out the words of Napoleon: "To handle men you must use a hand of steel in a velvet glove." His firm hand in decision, his standard of discipline in conduct cultivate in each student due reverence for God. The love of God radiating from his life shall be reflected in years to come through the lives of those under his ministry.

Story Telling

Each day as you walk into class, Mrs. Ball greets you with "¡Buenos Días! ¿Cómo está usted?" Her courteous manner is typical of the Latin American. Patient and understanding, she is always ready to help her students with the difficulties of pronunciation and irregular verb conjugations which the Spanish language presents. Sister Ball requires that each of her students memorize Scripture and endeavor to pray in Spanish regardless of his limited knowledge of the language. In special conversation classes, discussions are held on the problems and customs of Latin America as well as on the religion of that field. The interest Mrs. Ball maintains in each of her students makes her teaching a great success.

Public Speaking is often considered a dread, but not so under the instruction of Miss Belknap. Her joyful personality and her interesting manner of presenting the course tend to diminish the self-consciousness and nervousness so characteristic of the student while speaking. Anyone who studies under Miss Belknap will find that she adheres to the theory that hard work is essential to knowledge. "Great men are men of books," she frequently informs her classes, and in every way possible she appeals to each student to "study to show himself approved unto God a workman that needeth not to be ashamed."

J. Bashford Bishop, youthful enough to see the students' viewpoint and experienced enough to give sound advice, will live in the hearts of the students as the man who exhorted them to claim a blessing even in their duties. Myer Pearlman once said that a student could take a mop stick and say to it, "I will not let thee go except thou bless me." This is one of Bash Bishop's favorite illustrations as to the instruments God can use for a means of blessing. The passion of his heart has been that every student will learn to know intimately the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

LILY BLEWITT (Mrs. J. S.)

Private Piano

When Mrs. Blewitt is not seen accompanying her husband around the campus, you will know she is in the music building answering repeated knocks at her studio door. Her entire teaching schedule has been devoted to instruction in piano, which to her is more a pleasure than work. Although she specializes in evangelistic style and original arrangements of sacred music, you will often find Mrs. Blewitt helping some student struggle through compositions of Beethoven or Bach. Her talent, consecrated to God in preparing others to play for His glory, has been a real asset to the Music Department of Central Bible Institute.

JOVITA BONILLA

Spanish I

Dark complexioned, sweet-tempered Sister Bonilla is well suited to teaching Spanish, for she is a native of Mexico. Her slight accent quickly discloses this fact. If you should ask a first year Spanish student what he thinks of his teacher, he undoubtedly would reply, "She's really tops!" Sister Bonilla's Mexican courtesy is very apparent in her classes. Whenever a student has his scripture verses well memorized, she politely says to him, "¡Muy bien, Señor!" (Very well, Sir!) At times Sister Bonilla presents to her students the vast need for God in the lives of the Mexicans, creating within each student a greater desire to be better equipped for his future ministry.

HILDA EVANS (Mrs. W. I.)

Nursing
Obstetrics

"Always keep the hands clean," you will hear Sister Evans tell her Nursing class, for she desires above everything else to make her students germ-conscious. On the mission field as well as in all other phases of the ministry a knowledge of Personal Hygiene is essential. Mrs. Evans, the wife of our principal, is not only a teacher, but also the mistress of a cozy home situated on the campus. As a mother, a housewife, and a teacher she has well lived the motto of her classes, "I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something, and what I ought to do, by the grace of God, I will do it."

EDNA JOHNSON (Mrs. John)
Hindustani Drill

To bring up a family in a land like India is no easy job, yet our Sister Johnson has successfully reared five children in that country. The two younger boys, "Ray" and "Doug," are familiar friends around the C.B.I. campus. In spite of the task of taking care of two growing boys, Sister Johnson has graciously given of her time to instruct missionary students in Hindustani. Though she has been a member of our C.B.I. family for only one year, students have learned to appreciate her gracious manner and ability in teaching the vernacular of India.

Visual Education

Miss Eva Larson gladly left her place in the cold, northern state of Minnesota to become a promoter of children's work among the students of Central Bible Institute. During her two years here she has won the firm friendship of many students through her willing assistance. Daily Vacation Bible School work and Sunday School work have always held great interest in her life. She constantly draws attention to the fact that while natural methods and material aids are good, they alone are insufficient to teach boys and girls of Christ. Only His love in our lives will draw them to our blessed Saviour.

JACOB P. MYERS

Ancient History
Bible Atlas
Church History
Cults
Greek I & II

Despite the hours of study involved in overcoming the difficulties of the Greek language, students find the task a most pleasant one under the able tutoring of Brother Myers. The man who repeatedly calls our attention to breathing marks and accentuations of Greek words has captured everyone's heart through his humble and lovable character. In the study of Ancient History he has received grateful expressions of approval because of his careful and complete exposition of the course. His testimonies concerning the care of God have inspired each student to commit his way unto the Lord.

It has been said that a lighthouse does not have to make noise to call attention to itself; it just shines. The same can certainly be said of Miss Eleanor Parry. Her quiet life speaks of friendship and affection—a friendship appropriated for her students, and affection devoted to God. Miss Parry does not claim to be a preacher, but occasionally she interjects into the class discussion some up-lifting exposition of truth. She helps to make clear the complications of grammar study, even to the most puzzled student, and stresses the importance of correct English in the Christian ministry.

"Has anyone seen my keys? I just can't find them anywhere," Miss Preston desperately cries. Her piano students, organ students, Harmony classes, and many music engagements keep her so busy that she frequently misplaces these precious items. If they are not in one of her secretaries' rooms, they are usually between the seats in her car. In class Miss Preston stresses every point thoroughly. Her harmony students will never forget consecutive fifths or octaves and crossing of voices. Miss Preston's education and experience in the field of music make her a capable, efficient music instructor and director.

"Father, Thy will be done." Because Brother Glenn Reed humbly prayed this prayer and gladly left his district office, we the students of Central Bible Institute partake of his spiritual as well as his practical counsel. God's message to man has become a reality to the students, for through Brother Reed the Holy Spirit has revealed the nearness of the coming of the Lord as seen in the fulfillment of prophecy. Day by day the earnest desire of his heart is that God would lay the spirit of the prophet upon every student and make theirs a generation that will stand steadfast and true, a generation willing to say, "Not my will, but Thine be done."

ESTHER RUDE

English I
Recreational Leadership

"When the whistle is blown that means stop," says Miss Rude to the two teams spread out on the gym floor, "not only the ball, but also your yelling." It takes firmness in enforcing the rules to keep a game running smoothly, and Miss Rude is a teacher who believes in such a policy. She calls them as she sees them and shows no partiality. Under her leadership physical education is a period of enjoyment as well as a time of bodily exercise. Miss Rude not only directs the recreation of others but also enjoys sports herself. Occasionally she can be found on the tennis court swinging out a set with her rival, Miss Parry.

HOWARD E. RYDEN

General Chorus
Men's Chorus
Orchestra
Private Instrumental Women's Chorus

The smiling personality and overwhelming zeal in the life of Brother Ryden are natural qualifications for a musical director. His classes are certainly marked with the sparkle of life which is so necessary in the teaching of music. When it comes to football games and social activities, he is right there playing in the Pep Band; consequently he is considered "one of the boys." Next to directing music, Brother Ryden's interest is drawn to aviation. He has a vision of flying the Gospel of Christ to the uttermost part of the world. His talent and his ability are truly yielded for the glory of God.

When once confronted with the question, "Is it necessary to remember this?" Brother Steinberg judiciously replied, "It might come in handy sometime." One is quickly made to understand that he advocates the preservation of all information concerning the origin and content of the Bible. Though possessed with a seriousness of purpose, Brother Steinberg becomes informal at times, especially when recounting a humorous incident to his Homiletics class. His practical experience in preaching is of great value in relating to the students the duties of a minister. In him we have found one who lives as well as speaks his message.

In Miss Vose's music classes you will find the students clapping out the rhythm for hymns, writing melodies for choruses, or singing songs they have never heard or seen before. Even those who find music most difficult enjoy it when presented in this manner. The desire to "make a joyful noise unto the Lord" is the motive behind her teaching, and she carries it out in all her subjects. During her free time she avails herself of the opportunity of attending classes in some of the Biblical courses, and thus she maintains a close relationship with the students.

HELEN WEDDING

Private Piano

"There's going to be a wedding in school," was the rumor which caused a few eyebrows to be raised at Central Bible Institute a few years ago. The "Wedding" was not the one originally expected, but before she had been here long it became evident that there was no reason for disappointment. Miss Helen Wedding is best known on the campus and in the classrooms for her poise and gracious manner. She combines Eastern dignity with democratic friendliness. To the students she will always be the teacher with the rare ability to make even an English class interesting and enjoyable.

Special Teachers

Students who are well-trained in their particular talent give private instruction in the Music Department.

Viva Keeling, Emerald Wray, Viola Engelgau, Willard Bone, Flora Sprinkle, Floyd Woodworth.

MABEL THOMPSON (Mrs. Carl)

Though busily engaged in other musical activities, Mrs. Thompson has graciously given of her time to instruct C.B.I. students in the art of singing. Her capable assistance has been a valuable asset to the Music Department.

STAFF MEMBERS

ANNE BRILL

Librarian

The library with its shelves of books, magazines, and pamphlets is the storehouse of knowledge for every student. Miss Brill, our librarian, helps to make it so. She not only secures new literary productions that will be of great educational benefit to the student, but also keeps in systematic order that literature already on hand. Throughout the year students have appreciated her friendliness and her willingness in helping them locate the material they have desired.

JOHANNA CHRISTENSEN

Registrar

Hidden between the quietude of the principal's office and the hum of the general office you will find our registrar, Miss Christensen, surrounded with applications, letters, and transcripts. Yet, with all this, she keeps the business of C.B.I. running smoothly and accurately. A student first comes in contact with her when he writes for information concerning the school. Upon entering C.B.I. he finds her ready to assist in all his needs. Within her grasp is the key to all problems no matter how diverse they might be.

LORRAINE CLARK

Supv. of Bookroom

Whether you observe Miss Clark from the vantage point of the rush hour line-up in the bookroom or on a more leisurely visit there, she is always the same—never too busy to give her undivided attention and genuine understanding to every student. "Clarkie" is soft-spoken but very capable in performing her duties as bookroom supervisor. Her life before us is as melodious as the rich, full tones that she plays so beautifully on her saxophone.

IDA HUDSON (Mrs. M.)

Supv. of Laundry

To those who work in the laundry she is known as "Ma"; not only by name, but in the highest meaning of that endearing term. Occasionally one may catch her saying, "Saturday is the day in the laundry reserved for my boys." Her kind sense of humor, her generous smiles make duty time under her leadership most enjoyable. Sister Hudson contributes immensely toward our personal attractiveness, and as if that were not enough, she also ministers to our spiritual needs.

MILTON HUDSON

Ass't Supt. Bldgs. & Grounds

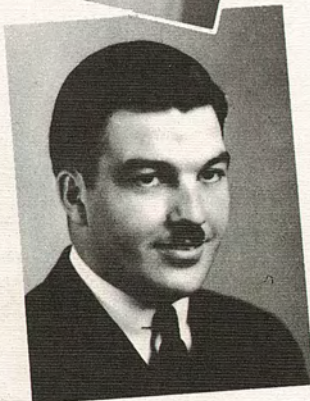

Brother Hudson is usually seen walking around the campus with his shirt sleeves rolled up and a monkey wrench or a hammer in his hand. This "general handyman" of C.B.I. does everything from fixing hot water tanks to replacing old fuses. His jobs during the course of the day are many, but you will sometimes see him stop off at the laundry for a period of rest. Could it be because his wife is the supervisor there?

MARY JOHNSON

Matron, Ass't Outstation Supv.

It takes planning, management, and getting along with students to make C.B.I. the well-ordered household that it is. Miss Johnson has not only seen that each student has been suited to his duty, but also that the job has been well done. She has proved to be capable and efficient in entering wholeheartedly and prayerfully into the everyday life of the C.B.I. family. Students will especially remember her for—"Do you have 'per' to eat in workers' line?"

DICK MERRIFIELD

Chef

A contagious smile plus the needed culinary ability makes Dick Merrifield, our chef, a valuable member of the C.B.I. staff. From early morning until late in the evening, he can be found in the kitchen faithfully performing his duty as chief cook and food co-ordinator. Because "Dick" has done much to keep our C.B.I. family happy and contented during the school year, he has found an unique place in the heart of every student.

ALBERT E. REID

Business Manager

The robust gentleman who divides the students' diet into vitamins, carbohydrates, and proteins is Brother Albert Reid. His selection of foods, his judgment in planning the menus insure each student a balanced meal! Those who have kitchen and dining room duty know that Brother Reid is well experienced in his line of work, for under his management the cafeteria is kept in perfect order. One can easily see that he is capable of teaching Cafeteria Management.

CAROL SCHENK (Mrs. Wm. F.)

Bookkeeper

Keeping the students' accounts with the school, along with a host of other duties, makes the task of Mrs. Carol Schenk as bookkeeper a great one. Yet, with all this, the students are greeted with a cheery smile when they come in to pay a bill or to cash that much looked-for check from home. Carol has a real appreciation of student life since she is an alumna and her husband is now a member of the Junior class.

BEULAH SHIVERS (Mrs. Wm.)

Ass't in Sewing Room

Although housekeeping for a husband and small son may be a full-time job, Mrs. Beulah Shivers has found time for another full-time occupation. This year she has become a valuable assistant in the sewing room. In this capacity she is serving the Lord by patiently teaching the future wives of pastors and missionaries the finer points of sewing, which will be a great asset in the years to come.

RUTH SOLEM

Ass't Registrar

The gentle voice that answers "Central Bible Institute" when the telephone rings is that of Miss Ruth Solem. Her pleasant personality makes her a competent assistant registrar as well as a friendly receptionist to the students coming into the office. If you should wonder why Ruthie glances down occasionally while she is typing, it is because she is proud of that "sparkler," which adorns her third finger, left hand. She is looking forward to that day when she will become "Senora."

RAYMOND TUCK

Supt. of Bldgs. & Grounds

Raymond Tuck is an outdoor man which probably accounts for his red cheeks. No matter how long you stay around C.B.I. you will not often see Brother Tuck sitting down, for he always finds something to do. It's a good thing, too, with furnaces, water pumps, building, lawn-mowing, and a lot of other things constantly demanding attention. Whenever there is a difficult task to be done, the answer is always, "Let Brother Tuck do it." He always gets the job done.

MABEL VAUGHAN

Supv. of Sewing Room

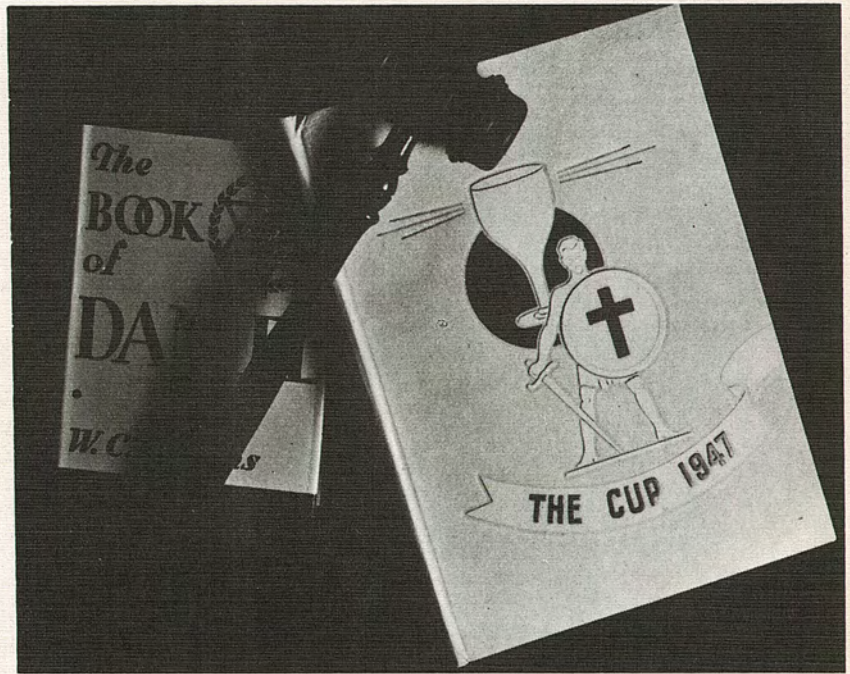

Miss Vaughan, a skillful seamstress, is not only the supervisor of the sewing room, but also a teacher to the girls who have that duty. The techniques of sewing are well known to her. In no time at all she can stitch in a button hole or turn up a hem. Under her direction the girls make everything from ladies' uniforms to men's sport jackets. "Tailor-made" is the description of their work.

JAMES L. WHITFORD

Baker

If all were preachers, who would perform the other tasks—such as baking bread, rolls, pies, cookies, and cakes for C.B.I. students? Brother Whitford feels that he is called to a definite ministry in his line of work. To this we all agree. He is one of those few who can work long hours day after day in a warm kitchen and still maintain a cheerful countenance. We appreciate the man attired in the white cap and apron—our baker, Brother James Whitford.

SENIORS ...

HISTORY OF THE SENIOR CLASS

"Springfield! This way out!" called the conductor. A young gentleman greeted us as we got off the train. How did he know we were C.B.I. students? He could tell by the glow on our faces. Remember our shaky and jolty ride from the station to the shaded campus of Central Bible Institute in those 1900 model busses?

The night we gathered around the blazing camp fire service we felt the first touch of the love that bands our C.B.I. family together. The fire was glowing with the light from the burning embers; our hearts were glowing with the light from the fire burning in our souls.

As our school life commenced, classes to us were more a pleasure than work. Occasionally the Spirit of God was so present we would spend the entire period praising the Lord and waiting on God. We can never forget the message on Isaac and Ishmael brought to us by our principal, Brother Evans. Nor will we ever forget the all-school hikes around the zoo and reservoir, campus day when we dug dandelions galore, and perhaps the happiest and saddest time of all was Commencement. We were happy as we sat there on the platform and sang of the splendor of God, but we were sad as we saw the Seniors, "Heralds of His Coming," leave our home at C.B.I.

There was great rejoicing as the C.B.I. family assembled once again in the fall of 1945. The curriculum was varied a little with the departmentalization of our courses, and Doctrine and Epistles were a part of our schedule this year. God confirmed His Word with signs following. Outstanding in our minds is the healing of one of our Junior classmates, a veteran who had been crippled through an injury received during the war.

MIDDLER-SENIOR BANQUET

The banqueting hall.

The Middler-Senior banquet was an event we could participate in this year. It was fun decorating the cafeteria, planning a menu and program for the entertainment of the Senior class. Though a social event, God's presence was also prevalent there.

Though we cannot always understand God's will, we know that His ways are always best. This we fully understood when God saw fit to take one of our classmates, Paul Hardt, to be present with Him in Glory. It was one of the saddest days C.B.I. has ever known, but we were comforted knowing God has a purpose in everything.

The days passed swiftly and it was not long until we sang "Good-bye and God Bless You" to the "Proclaimers of His Kingship" and looked forward to following in their footsteps.

It was hard to believe that we were Seniors when we returned to C.B.I. this year, and C.B.I. seemed different, though it was still home. By now we had outgrown the Assembly Hall and were forced to have our worship services in the tabernacle.

As Seniors we had many blessed times together as a class in Sunday morning devotions. The Middlers thrilled us this year with the banquet they prepared for us. Our Senior socials, Senior breakfast, and Senior outing will always remain vivid in our memories.

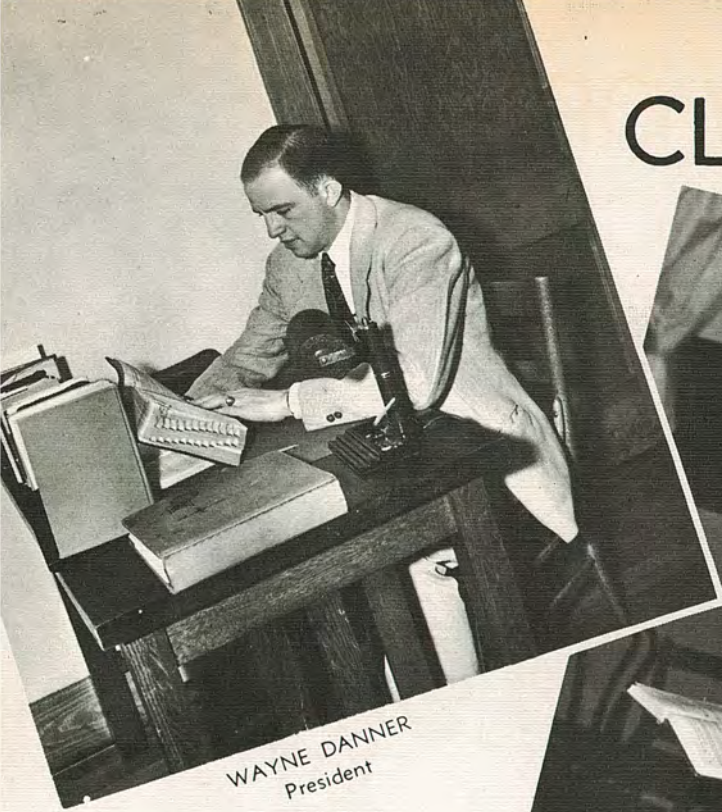

And now as Commencement brings our Senior year to an end, we leave these portals desirous of keeping the charge committed us. Armed with the shield of faith, the helmet of salvation, the sword of the Spirit, we go forth to Guard Our Heritage.

Brother Johnson serves food from Heaven.

CLASS SPEAKERS

Congratulations

BETTY McCRAY

JAMES CHESHER

Separated unto the gospel of Christ Jesus and yielded to the high calling of God, Betty McCray and James Cheshier represent the Class of 1947. They have been chosen as Commencement speakers by the faculty and Senior class for their spiritual fervor, leadership, and scholastic ability during three years of Christian training. Having served as missionary curators and possessing a compassion for the heathen of every land, Betty and James have the missionary vision necessary for winning souls in the ripened harvest field. Their consecrated lives exemplify faithful Guardians of Our Heritage

Dear Paul,

God looked upon the earth below
And saw a loving son,
One whose life was pure and righteous
And one whose work was done.
He softly drew him to His side
And said, "Come home with Me;
For thou hast been a faithful child;
This world is not for thee.
I have prepared for you a home,
A mansion bright and fair;
And all of Heaven's peace and joy,
My son, await you there.
You've lived a consecrated life;
You've given Me your best.
To do the Father's blessed will
Remained your sole request.
Come home now, son, for there you'll find
A crown is your reward
For all the days and months and years
You lived for Christ your Lord."
And so God took you, Paul, from us.
He took you home to rest.
We cannot understand just why,
But God knows all things best.
We've missed you more than words can tell;
We've missed your gracious smile,
But still we have that blessed hope
To come in just a while.
For some bright day, it won't be long,
The dead in Christ shall rise,
And we who then are still alive
Shall meet you in the skies.
Together we shall journey home
Our blessed Lord to see,
And we shall reign as kings with Him
Throughout eternity.

"Yours In Christ"

THE SENIOR CLASS

JOHN PAUL HARDT

Dear Lord, we give our lives to Thee.
As Paul was faithful, help us be Always willing, Lord, to do
Just what You would have us to.
Control and purify our youth!
Increase our knowledge of Thy Truth!
Send us forth as guardians bold,
Thy Gospel Banner to uphold!

Guardians of

FAYE ANTHONY

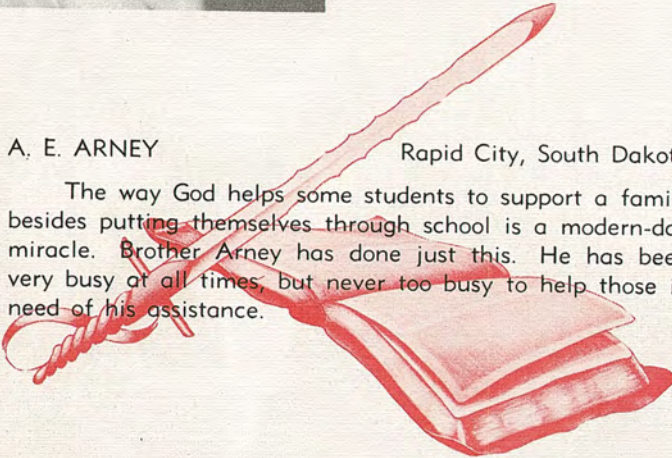

Murfreesboro, Arkansas

We admire Faye's high degree of southern hospitality and genial friendship. She stands out as one who is always willing to do whatever she can for others, even to the extent of driving her 1946 Nash to outstation over some of Missouri's most rugged roads.

A. E. ARNEY

Rapid City, South Dakota

The way God helps some students to support a family besides putting themselves through school is a modern-day miracle. Brother Arney has done just this. He has been very busy at all times, but never too busy to help those in need of his assistance.

BERTHA AUFRECHT

Greeley, Colorado

Though small in stature, Bertha is broad in personality. She has an intimate friendship with all of the girls, for hers is the duty of sorting their laundry. When we think of Bertha we think of the proverbial saying, "Good things come in small packages."

Our Heritage

MARJORIE AUSBURY

E. Tawas, Michigan

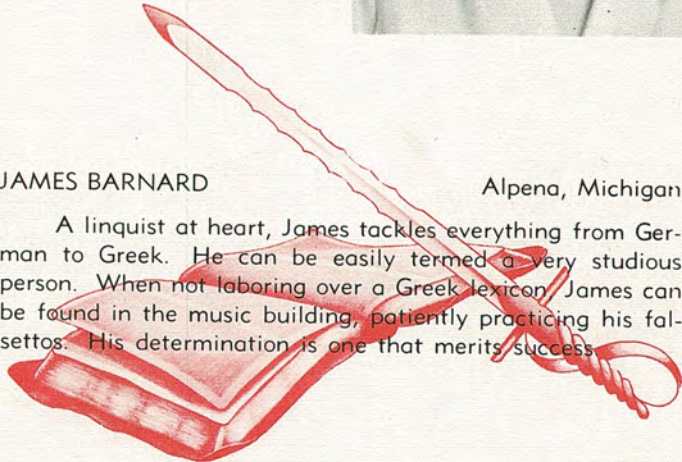

"Marjie" is a quiet but very conscientious individual who is held in high esteem by all her friends. One of her main interests is music. In this field she has chosen the accordion, which she uses faithfully for street meetings and factory services.

JAMES BARNARD

Alpena, Michigan

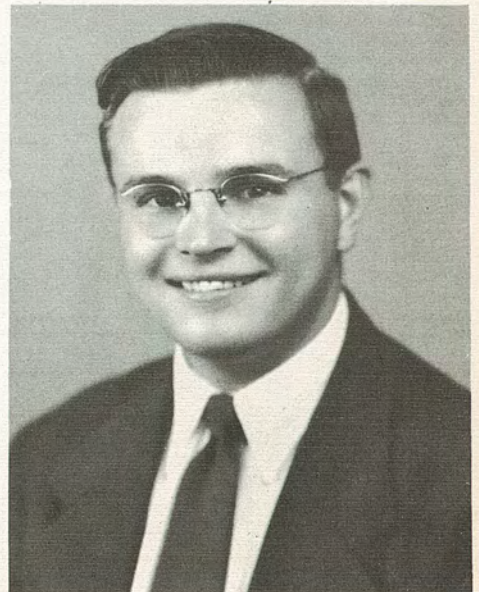

A linguist at heart, James tackles everything from German to Greek. He can be easily termed a very studious person. When not laboring over a Greek lexicon, James can be found in the music building, patiently practicing his falsettos. His determination is one that merits success.

EDWARD BONKOWSKI

Toledo, Ohio

Ed is well known around the train depot and bus stations of Springfield, for every Saturday night he does personal work among their traveling crowds. Through his hands have passed many tracts containing the salvation message. Only eternity will reveal the fruit of his labor.

Guardians of

ROBERTA BOWLEY

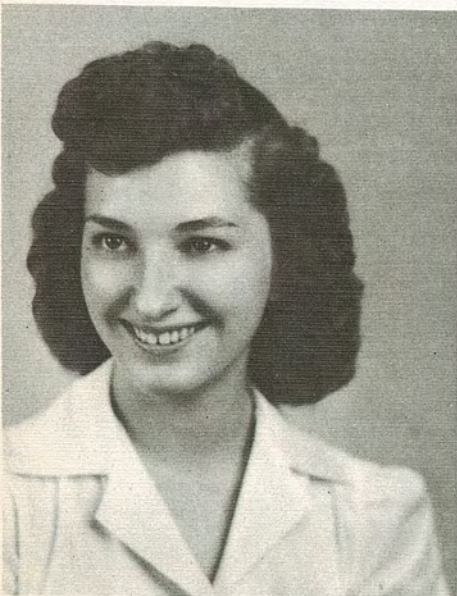

Dallas, Texas

"To be used of God" is the theme of Roberta's testimonies given in Friday-night chapel services. "Bobbie" is a lover of poetry, and at the end of every testimony she quotes some inspiring line. Her life, though calm and reserved, has exemplified true devotion to God.

WILLIAM BOWMAN

Springfield, Missouri

Bill stands out as a man who is a "jack-of-all-trades." At C.B.I. he has been everything from an electrician to a printer. As president of the Pilots' Club, he displays his leadership as well as his ability to get things done.

FAITH BRANDT

Wayne, Michigan

"Faithie's" love for outstation work has proved that she is zealous for God. Throughout this school year she has been the faithful pastor of Union City. Never dare Faith to do anything, for she will do it. Remember that duet in Prophecy I class?

Our Heritage

JAMES BROOKS

Green Cove Springs, Florida

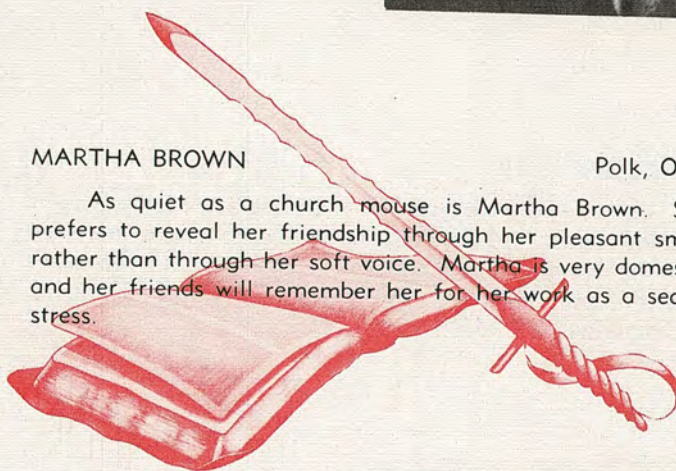

Tall, dark, and handsome—that's James Brooks. Besides a Florida accent, Jimmy is noted for that shining car which he and his brother own in partnership. Jimmy is hesitant in speaking to others only when he is asked certain questions in Spanish conversation class.

MARTHA BROWN

Polk, Ohio

As quiet as a church mouse is Martha Brown. She prefers to reveal her friendship through her pleasant smile rather than through her soft voice. Martha is very domestic and her friends will remember her for her work as a seamstress.

EVELYN CASWELL

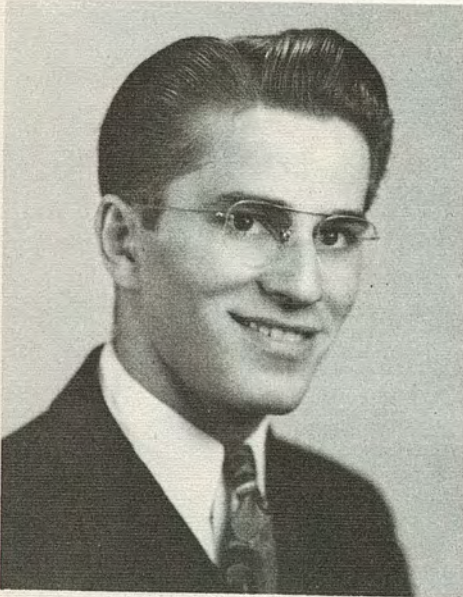

Flint, Michigan

To some, God has given special gifts and to Evelyn He has graciously given a song. Her beautiful voice, consecrated solely for the glory of God, is not only heard in C.B.I. chapel services but also over the "Sermons in Song" radio broadcast.

Guardians of

RUDOLPH CERULLO

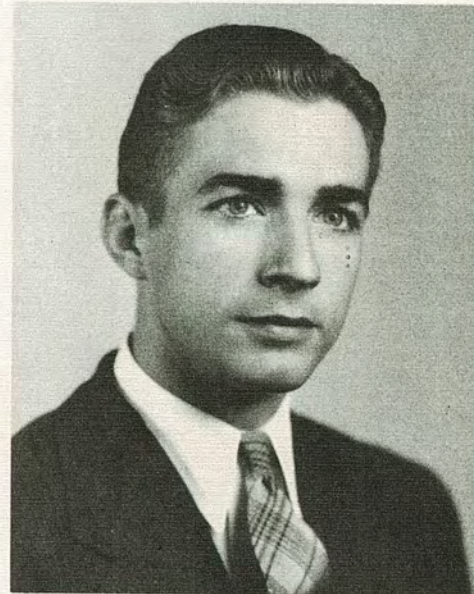

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Rudolph chose to graduate from his wife's Alma Mater; therefore he came to C.B.I. this year. We have profited greatly by his friendship. He is best known for his inexhaustible supply of energy when it come to preaching and singing the praises of God.

JAMES CHESHER

Monticello, Arkansas

James with his mental alertness and spiritual leadership is remembered for always saying the right thing at the right time. We recognize and appreciate the fact that as president of the Student Missionary Band, he seeks to act in all things as prompted by the Holy Spirit.

MARY CHOCO

New Castle, Pennsylvania

It takes much time to grade over two hundred Chapter Summary papers a week, yet Mary efficiently accomplishes this besides her other duties. For two years she has been Brother Evans' secretary, and her gracious smile is remembered with pleasure by all who enter the office.

Our Heritage

BERNICE CLAY

Allen Park, Michigan

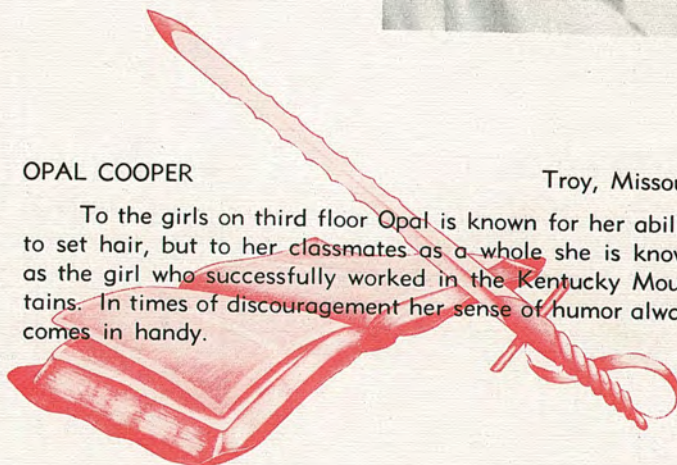

It is nothing unusual to find Bernice quietly meditating "between the book ends" in the library, for her favorite pastime at C.B.I. is reading. She attempts anything from fiction to biography, but leaves the deeper subjects for more zealous individuals.

OPAL COOPER

Troy, Missouri

To the girls on third floor Opal is known for her ability to set hair, but to her classmates as a whole she is known as the girl who successfully worked in the Kentucky Mountains. In times of discouragement her sense of humor always comes in handy.

BEATRICE COPELAND

Port Orchard, Washington

Three years at C.B.I. transformed Bea from a very timid person into one whose friendship is greatly enjoyed. Her steam table crew refers to her as "the boss," for under her supervision they keep the chow line moving.

Guardians of

ELLA CSONTOS

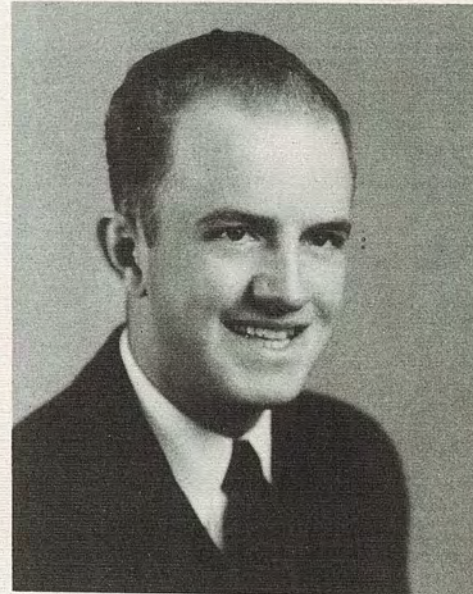

Cleveland, Ohio

Ella enters wholeheartedly into everything she does whether it be her studies or music. At school as well as at home, she has maintained an interest in choral work. Her beautiful alto voice easily blends with others in making harmony.

WAYNE DANNER

Elkins, Arkansas

Take a love for God's Word, combine it with prayerfulness and you have the life of our Senior class president, Wayne Danner. His faithfulness at Senior prayers each Sunday morning has been a great inspiration to his classmates throughout this year.

WARREN DAVENPORT

Kansas City, Missouri

The rather short gentleman with the leather brief case swinging at his side as he hurries into class is Brother Davenport. It seems that he never leaves "trailer colony" in time to make his class. Being a family man is, in itself, a full-time job.

Our Heritage

RUTH DAVIS

Kirkwood, Missouri

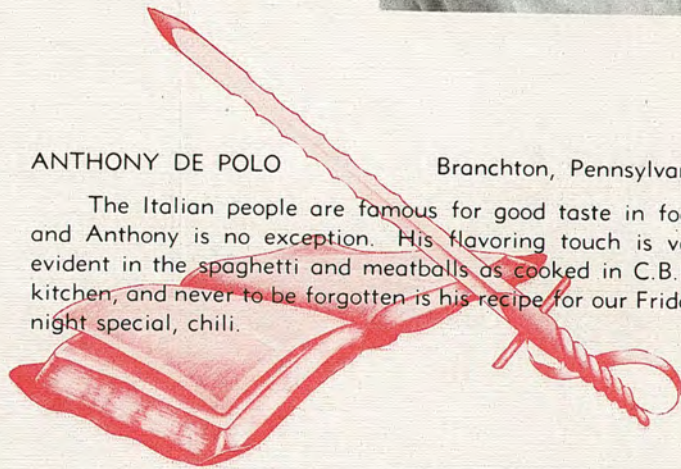

Some distinguish Ruth as the girl with the blazing red hair; others recognize her for her ability to make "good shots" in basketball; but to the girls on third floor she is remembered for the way she plays her guitar and sings.

ANTHONY DE POLO

Branchton, Pennsylvania

The Italian people are famous for good taste in food, and Anthony is no exception. His flavoring touch is very evident in the spaghetti and meatballs as cooked in C.B.I.'s kitchen, and never to be forgotten is his recipe for our Friday-night special, chili.

GLORIA DIRMANN

New Orleans, Louisiana

At Friday-night chapel service Gloria is always found seated in the second row from the front. The minute testimonies begin, she is standing. Hers is a fiery testimony that flows through smiles out of the depths of her heart.

Guardians of

VIRGINIA DORMAN

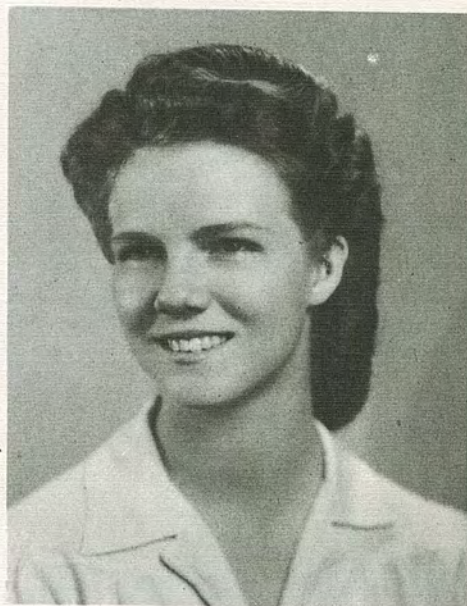

Appleton, Wisconsin

Blend together a pleasant smile and a striking personality with a slight dab of humor and you have Virginia Dorman. "Ginny" is noted for her quick stride around the dining room and her ability to clear tables and keep up a conversation at the same time.

LAVERN DORROUGH

Paris, Arkansas

Lavern is a familiar individual in the laundry and can almost be classified as its Assistant Supervisor, for she spends most of her time working there. Even during her leisure hours, she loves to sit and chat with "Ma," the supervisor of the laundry.

ELIZABETH FAILLA

Passaic, New Jersey

As long as you don't call her "Lizzy," Betts remains your friend. She is a jolly, good-natured person with a consistent prayer life which she cultivated while at school. Her main dislike is milk, yet she always takes some when going through line. Do you wonder why?

Our Heritage

STEPHEN FLORECK

Detroit, Michigan

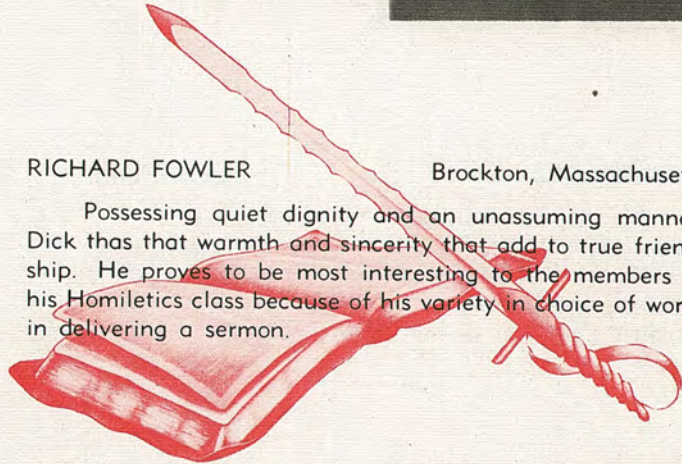

Steve is a humorist as well as a poet. The poetical, practical truths which he displays on the boys' bulletin boards are only samples of his witty masterpieces. He has the reputation of being one who can always enliven a conversation.

RICHARD FOWLER

Brockton, Massachusetts

Possessing quiet dignity and an unassuming manner, Dick has that warmth and sincerity that add to true friendship. He proves to be most interesting to the members of his Homiletics class because of his variety in choice of words in delivering a sermon.

NAOMI FRANK

Seattle, Washington

With a degree of intelligence like that of Naomi's one is to be considered an honor student. During her three years of Bible school she has maintained a high average in all of her classes. Naomi is efficient as the secretary of our Senior class.

Guardians of

CLIFFORD GAMBILL

Springfield, Missouri

In his first two years Brother Gambill was seen many times driving off with the school truck. No, he was not committing a theft. He was the mail man for the Gospel Publishing House. In class he proves to be just as faithful as in his work.

ELIZABETH GEIKEN

Fargo, North Dakota

Elizabeth firmly believes that God can be glorified and the hearts of men reached through the medium of consecrated music. This was the theme of her Homiletics message, and it has also been the truth confirmed in the complete surrender of her talents to God.

ROBERT GOTTAS

Mansfield, Ohio

We can best describe Brother Gottas as the man who is frequently seen walking across the Campus, hidden under a bundle of clothes. He and his wife are in charge of the students' dry cleaning, using their trailer as a receiving and loading station.

Our Heritage

ROBERT GRABER

Wauwatosa, Wisconsin

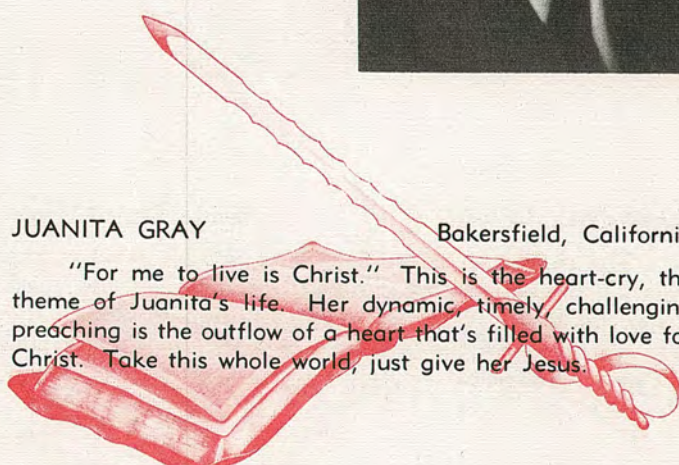

Just embarrass Bobby sometime and you will see his face turn as red as a beat. When it comes to blushing, "Gus" holds the record. He holds the record for smiling too—especially on the days that he receives two letters from Minneapolis, Minnesota.

JUANITA GRAY

Bakersfield, California

"For me to live is Christ." This is the heart-cry, the theme of Juanita's life. Her dynamic, timely, challenging preaching is the outflow of a heart that's filled with love for Christ. Take this whole world, just give her Jesus.

BEATRICE HANEY

Kansas City, Missouri

Because she has the duty of sorting the men's laundry, Bea can tell you the name of practically any boy in school. Though a complaint of a missing towel or sheet usually results in a lengthy search, she always handles the situation in an obliging manner.

Guardians of

CLARA HARPER (Mrs. R.)

Kansas City, Missouri

Sister Harper was in evangelistic work before coming to C.B.I. While here at school, she has continued working for God on outstation. She may appear to be a quiet person but her testimonies in chapel quickly disclose the volume of her vocal energy.

RAYMOND HARPER

Kansas City, Missouri

The ringing of a doorbell is no unusual sound to the ears of Brother Harper. More than once he has been awakened during the early morning hours to unlock the door for some exhausted student just returning from outstation. Nevertheless, he enjoys his position as doorkeeper.

MARY HART

Norfolk, Virginia

Mary is a diligent little girl who strives for perfection in everything she does. She is very devoted to her studies, as well as to her accordion. Students have discovered, however, that it only takes one of Brother Evans' questions to terminate her extreme silence.

Our Heritage

NAOMI HARTPENCE

Springfield, Missouri

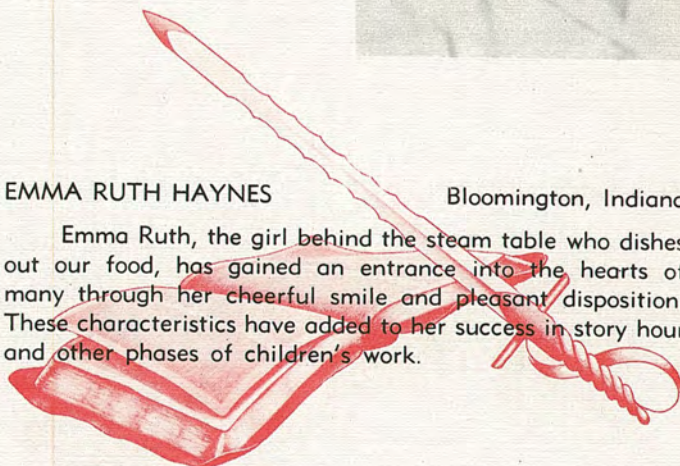

Judging from the posters she draws for the CUP, Naomi has an amazing ability in art work. She is also talented musically. Her French horn has been outstanding not only in C.B.I.'s orchestra and band, but also in the Springfield Civic Symphony.

EMMA RUTH HAYNES

Bloomington, Indiana

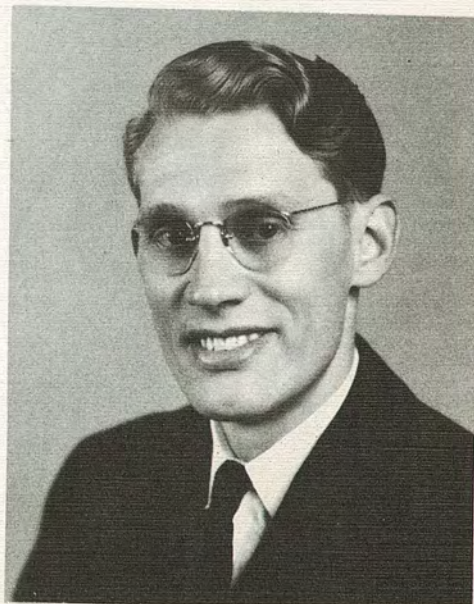

Emma Ruth, the girl behind the steam table who dishes out our food, has gained an entrance into the hearts of many through her cheerful smile and pleasant disposition. These characteristics have added to her success in story hour and other phases of children's work.

DALE HELLE

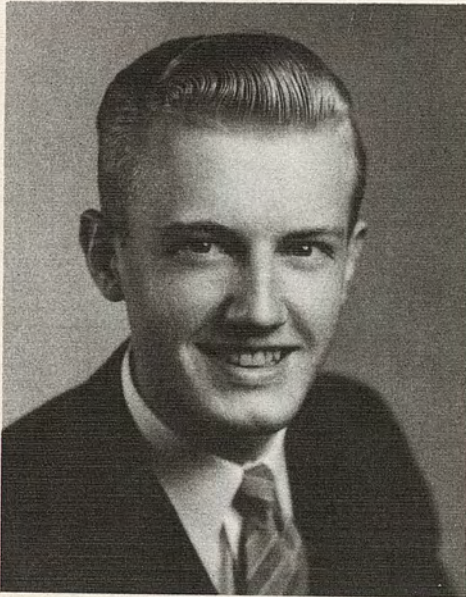

Seattle, Washington

After a year's absence, Dale came back to C.B.I. a married man. He considers himself quite fortunate, because he has not only an able housekeeper but also an efficient secretary. Dale is well known for his participation in vocal trios and duets.

Guardians of

GEORGE HILLESTAD

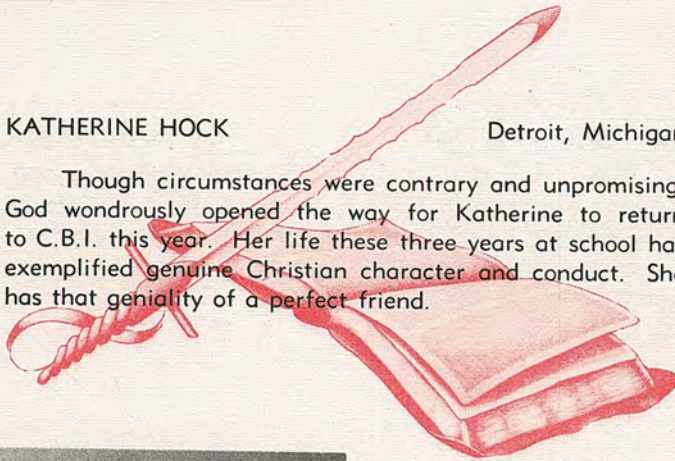

Lodi, Wisconsin

George will always be remembered by his classmates for three distinct things. First—his wide interest in Sunday School work. Secondly—his habit of always trying to stand on his head in Physical Education Leadership class. Thirdly—his familiar poses in the dining room.

KATHERINE HOCK

Detroit, Michigan

Though circumstances were contrary and unpromising, God wondrously opened the way for Katherine to return to C.B.I. this year. Her life these three years at school has exemplified genuine Christian character and conduct. She has that geniality of a perfect friend.

DORIS HOFFER

Warsaw, Indiana

"And that ye study to be quiet and to do your own business" is a verse that characterizes Doris. She does not express herself by words so much as by actions. She is preparing to minister in the field of Latin America.

Our Heritage

ERSKINE HOLT

Muncie, Indiana

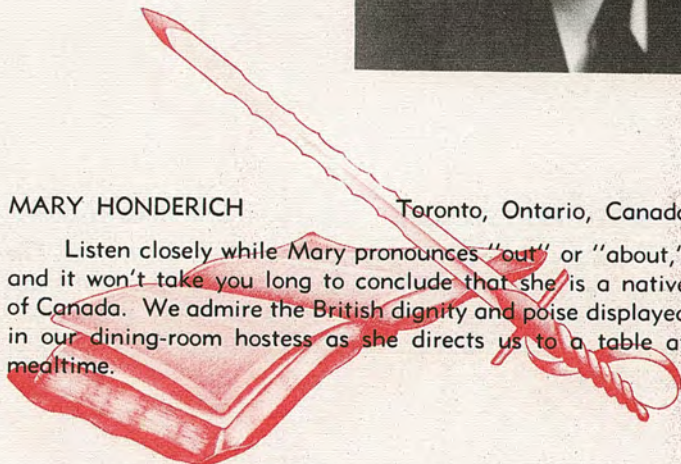

Erskine has been everything from secretary of the Outstation Department to Advertising Manager for the CUP. He is an experienced preacher, business man, and vocalist. Students find that an easy way to win Erskine's favor is to give him a soft bed or two cups of coffee with sugar.

MARY HONDERICH

Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Listen closely while Mary pronounces "out" or "about," and it won't take you long to conclude that she is a native of Canada. We admire the British dignity and poise displayed in our dining-room hostess as she directs us to a table at mealtime.

MARIO HOOVER

Sanitago, Chile, South America

Romance is something that envelops "Mario the Great" the whole day through—starting with an early morning walk. Though he has been in this country for only a short time, it didn't take Mario long to adapt himself to American customs. He surpasses many students with his degree of knowledge.

Guardians of

RUTH HORSTBRINK

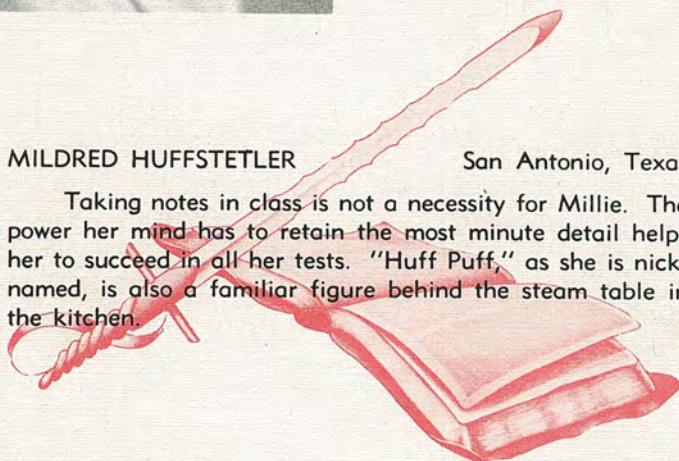

St. Louis, Missouri

Always dressed up and anxious to go somewhere, Ruth appears to be an adventurous type of person. Her red hair and blue eyes sparkle with animation. There is never a dull moment in her life. Of this her friends are fully aware.

MILDRED HUFFSTETLER

San Antonio, Texas

Taking notes in class is not a necessity for Millie. The power her mind has to retain the most minute detail helps her to succeed in all her tests. "Huff Puff," as she is nicknamed, is also a familiar figure behind the steam table in the kitchen.

ANN HURSTON

Pine Mt. Valley, Georgia

Ann, the "Alabama Belle," possesses sincerity and determination which have been a source of inspiration to her classmates. She loves playing the piano as well as the accordion. On outstation and at street meetings her musical talents have been appreciated.

Our Heritage

KENNETH JAMES

Detroit, Michigan

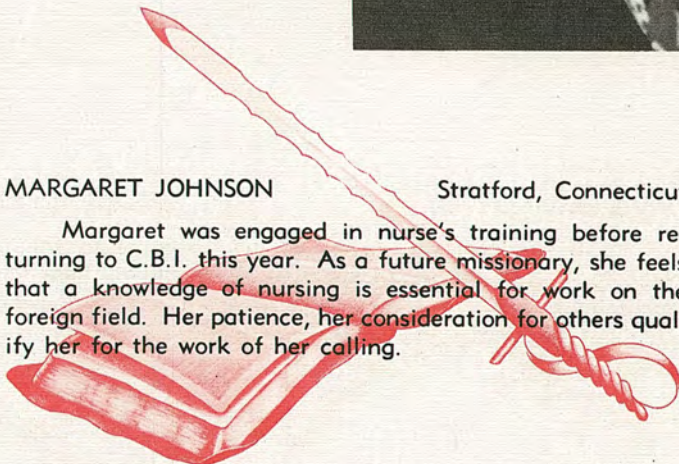

We associate Ken with that mellow, baritone voice heard over the "Sermons in Song" broadcast. His singing has been a blessing to the patients of Mount Vernon Tuberculosis Sanatorium. Being healed of tuberculosis, he has a testimony in experience as well as in song.

MARGARET JOHNSON

Stratford, Connecticut

Margaret was engaged in nurse's training before returning to C.B.I. this year. As a future missionary, she feels that a knowledge of nursing is essential for work on the foreign field. Her patience, her consideration for others qualify her for the work of her calling.

FENTON JONES

Smithfield, Virginia

A gentleman, soft-spoken, and polite, Fenton is best distinguished from the rest of his classmates by his freckle-dotted complexion and red-tinted hair. An able musician, he is quite "at home" when at the keyboard of a piano.

Guardians of

ROBERTA KAY

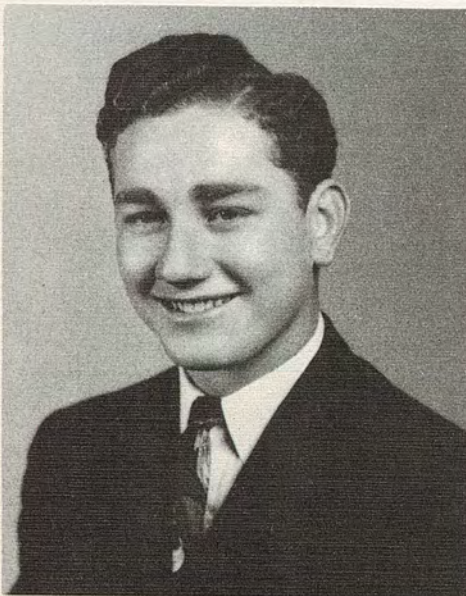

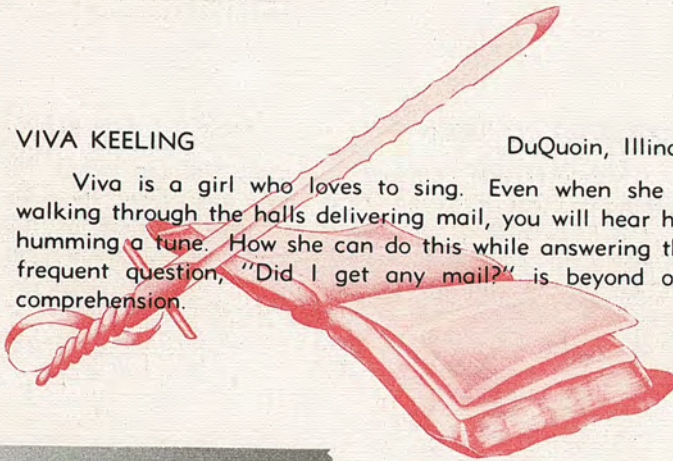

Tucson, Arizona

Roberta, though modest and quiet, is admired by her classmates for her spirit of cooperation and enthusiasm. She says hardly a word to those who pass by her while she is clearing tables in the dining room, but a cheerful smile conveys her sincere friendliness.

VIVA KEELING

DuQuoin, Illinois

Viva is a girl who loves to sing. Even when she is walking through the halls delivering mail, you will hear her humming a tune. How she can do this while answering the frequent question, "Did I get any mail?" is beyond our comprehension.

OTIS KEENER

Youngstown, Ohio

One of the leading athletes of C.B.I., Otis excels in vim and vigor. His energy is exhibited not only on the gym floor but also behind the pulpit in Homiletics class. When you see "Otie" leaving the campus, he is probably headed for 2195 North Broadway.

Our Heritage

EARL KELLY

Allerton, Iowa

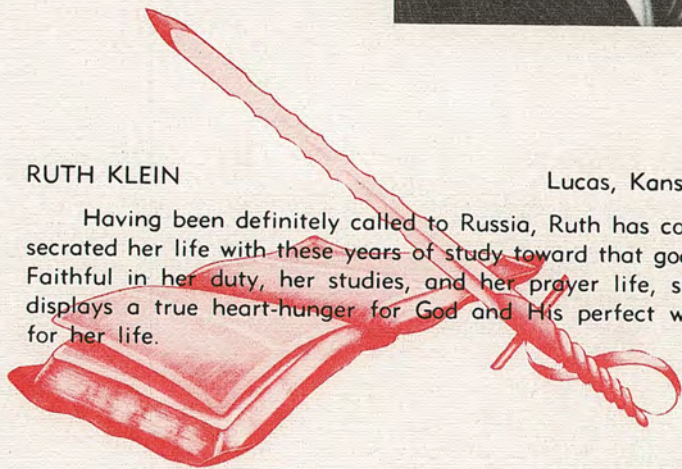

Brother Kelly is the jovial type of student who has a smile for every one. His happiness is partly due to the fact that he and his wife have a baby boy, concerning whom we frequently hear him saying, "My son is tops!"

RUTH KLEIN

Lucas, Kansas

Having been definitely called to Russia, Ruth has consecrated her life with these years of study toward that goal. Faithful in her duty, her studies, and her prayer life, she displays a true heart-hunger for God and His perfect will for her life.

HELEN KOMOR

Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Helen is a familiar figure in the dining room on Tuesday and Friday afternoons. As treasurer of the Student Missionary Band, she collects the students' pledges for missions. At other times she can be found in the Sweet Shop either consuming her merchandise or serving a hungry throng.

Guardians of

VELMA KOOISTRA

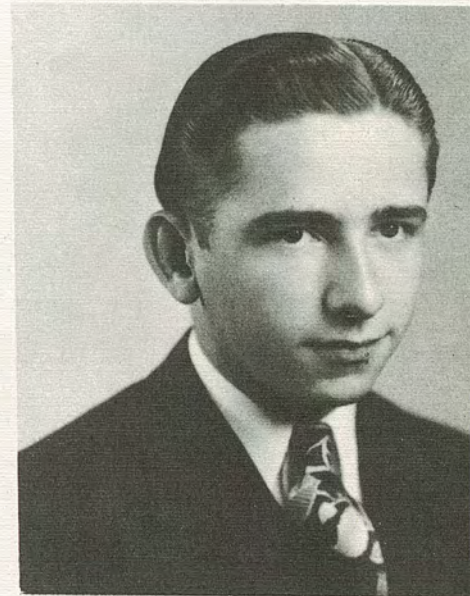

Sully, Iowa

Velma was a rural school teacher before coming to C.B.I. After graduating, she plans to re-enter this occupation. We can say that if her efforts are as well directed in the future as they have been in the past, the greatest success is assured her.

PAUL LINCOLN

St. Louis, Missouri

A serious, sober student, Paul can be seen every night studying with much fervor on his assignments, especially those for History of Missions. Besides his regular studies, he is completing by correspondence his high school education. His persistence qualifies him as a salesman in any line, even insurance.

MYRTLE LLOYD

Beggs, Oklahoma

It is necessary to be associated with Myrtle in order to know her true personality. To her classmates she appears to be quiet and bashful, but when alone with her roommate she is a merry soul, very talkative and humorous.

Our Heritage

BETTY LOUKES

St. Clair, Michigan

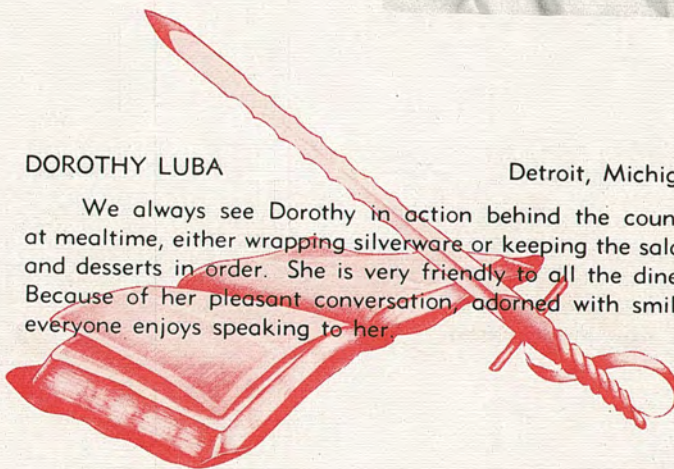

"Nicest things come in small packages" is a saying truly applicable to Betty. Though her classmates tend to overshadow her less-than-five-foot figure, her musical talents make her outstanding among them. Sometimes we can see more accordion than Betty.

DOROTHY LUBA

Detroit, Michigan

We always see Dorothy in action behind the counter at mealtime, either wrapping silverware or keeping the salads and desserts in order. She is very friendly to all the diners. Because of her pleasant conversation, adorned with smiles, everyone enjoys speaking to her.

RAYMOND LUBA

Detroit, Michigan

It is a common sight to see Ray coming into the dorm greased up after performing a post-mortem on someone's crippled auto. His pockets filled with screws, nuts, bolts, and screwdrivers, he gives every appearance of a mechanic.

Guardians of

ANNA McCAULEY

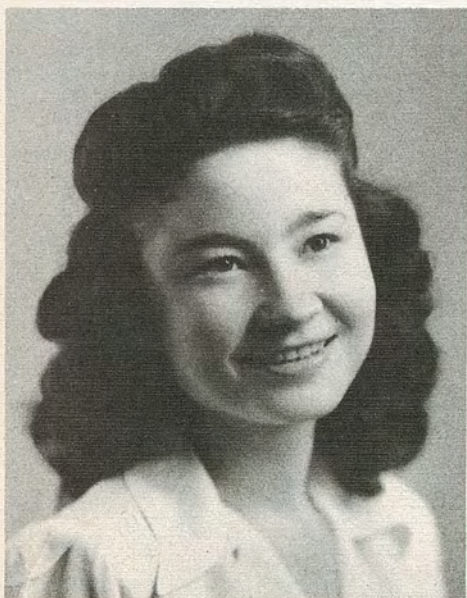

Hagerstown, Maryland

Quiet and demure, Anna is the efficient secretary of Brother Bishop. She goes about her work as though she intends to get the job done with the slightest possible confusion and delay. Educationally she is interested in music and is a major in that department.

BETTY McCRAY

Wolcott, Indiana

The burden for souls Betty had as curator during her Middler year still prevails in her life as a Senior. Her devotion to God is sensed not only in her willingness to do her part when called up but also in the strains of music that flow from her marimba.

WANDA McFARLAND

Prescott, Arizona

Good-hearted, conscientious, Wanda is a fine student and a true friend. Always interesting are her references in Nursing class to her past experiences as a nurse's aid. "When I worked in the hospital, we did this—," she says, and then continues.

Our Heritage

EINAR MCGHEE

Gooding, Idaho

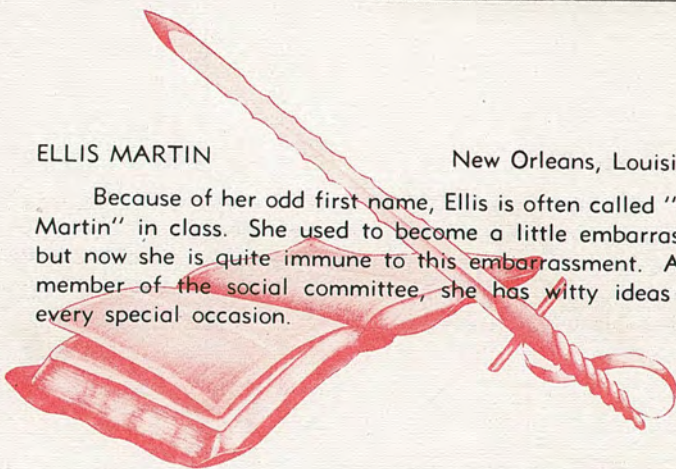

Seriousness and deep-thinking are some of the characteristics which reveal Einar's personality. He is an interesting conversationalist and is always ready to listen to another's viewpoint. As a speaker he presents his thoughts logically and interestingly.

ELLIS MARTIN

New Orleans, Louisiana

Because of her odd first name, Ellis is often called "Mr. Martin" in class. She used to become a little embarrassed but now she is quite immune to this embarrassment. As a member of the social committee, she has witty ideas for every special occasion.

RAYMOND MASSI

Camden, New Jersey

After serving in the armed forces, Ray came back to C.B.I. this year to finish his Bible school training. The fascinating stories he tells of his ministerial efforts in the United States Army are interesting as well as challenging to his fellow students.

Guardians of LYDIA MAURICE

Miami, Florida

During outstation reports in Tuesday-morning chapel service, Lydia is heard saying, "We want Rimby for Jesus!" Throughout her Bible school years she has carried a burden for this outstation. Her faithfulness in ministering to the people there has been rewarded with the salvation of souls.

ADA MILLER

Norfolk, Virginia

Ada is the home-loving type of individual. Hardly a conversation goes by without her referring in some way to "the folks back home." She possesses a very amiable spirit. Students have found her to be a true companion, always agreeable and friendly.

GLADYS MILSKE

Detroit, Michigan

When Mother Bowie can't be located or when she is taking a day off, just see "Gladdie" because she is Mother Bowie, Jr. Like her, Gladys is understanding and kind. Spontaneity and exuberance are part of her admirable character. We'll remember her trade-mark: "I'm so happy-e-ee!"

Our Heritage

ALMA MOBERG

New Rochelle, New York

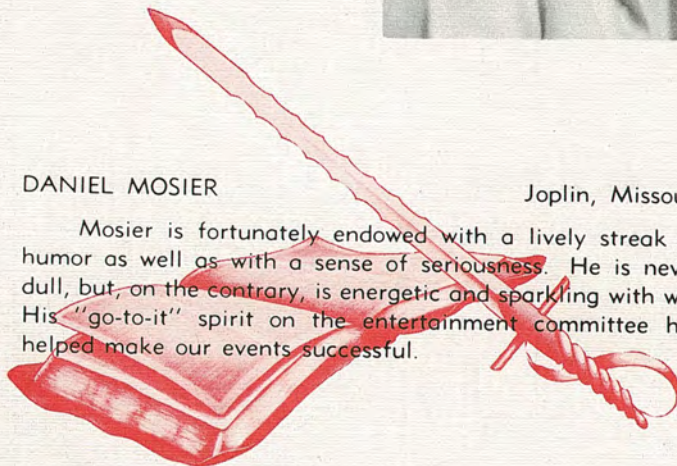

Set your food down on the table in the dining room and "ever-ready" Alma is there with a glowing smile to collect your tray. Her smile and instant humor always seem to brighten the day and help to make mealtime a happy occasion.

DANIEL MOSIER

Joplin, Missouri

Mosier is fortunately endowed with a lively streak of humor as well as with a sense of seriousness. He is never dull, but, on the contrary, is energetic and sparkling with wit. His "go-to-it" spirit on the entertainment committee has helped make our events successful.

WILMA MUNGER

Coquille, Oregon

Wilma is one who puts her heart and soul into everything she does. As co-leader for the Latin American prayer group, she has demonstrated a deep compassion for lost souls. In Spanish class she has one difficulty—understanding Spanish jokes.

Guardians of

LYMAN MYERS

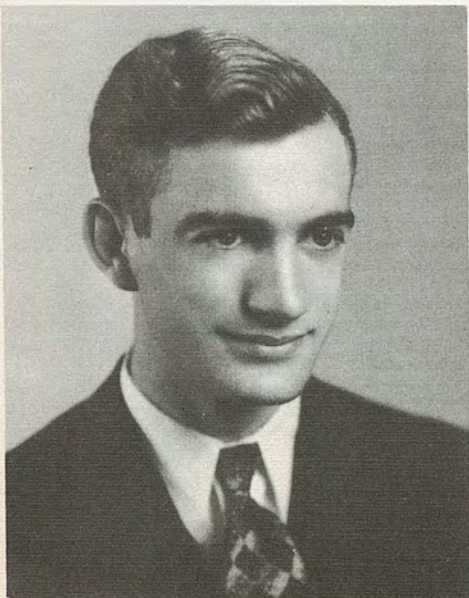

Detroit, Michigan

Lyman is that indispensable person whose ability to sight-read well makes him outstanding in Radio Choir. You will often hear him asking, "Have you ever been to Brightmoor Tabernacle?" If answered in the negative, he will say, "Then you don't know what you are missing."

CLIFFORD NIELSEN

Maumee, Ohio

Brother Nielsen well distributes his time between "home life" in the trailer colony and "school life" in the classroom. He is a hard-working diligent student—a man whose ambition is great enough to warrant the assertion that his future will be a success.

ROBERT PALMER

Grass Lake, Michigan

As Business Manager for the CUP, Bob is competent in every task, whether it be selling subscriptions or keeping budgets. In class you will occasionally see him nod his head as he enters a two-minute nap. He is still endeavoring to overcome this sleeping difficulty.

Our Heritage

MINNIE PETERSON (Mrs. Olaf)

Gary, Indiana

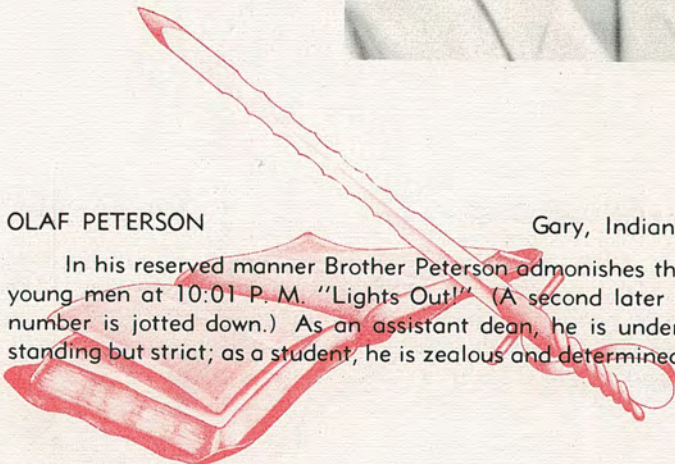

Versatile in accomplishments, brilliant in her studies, Mrs. Peterson is quite a competitor for her husband. Being married has not hindered her from enjoying a friendly relationship with all the girls. She considers no sacrifice too great for a friend—especially her friend, Christ Jesus.

OLAF PETERSON

Gary, Indiana

In his reserved manner Brother Peterson admonishes the young men at 10:01 P. M. "Lights Out!" (A second later a number is jotted down.) As an assistant dean, he is understanding but strict; as a student, he is zealous and determined.

MARY LOU POPE

Tulsa, Oklahoma

Never disagreeable, never bashful, and always ready to laugh when the joke is on her, Mary Lou is an ideal example of a Tulsan. From the foundation she has laid by her regular study and cordial attitude, we predict her future to be crowned with achievement.

Guardians of

HENRIETTA PULVERMILLER

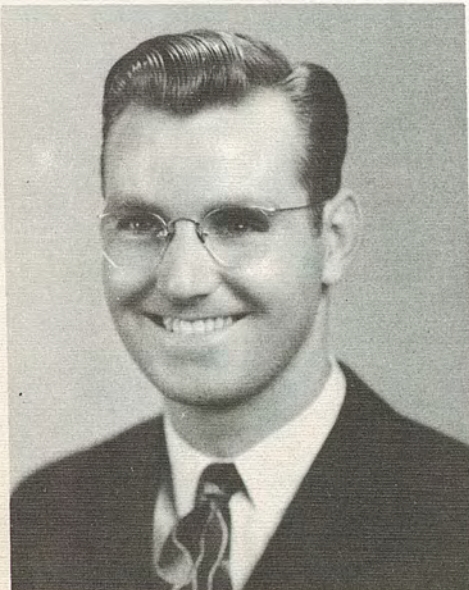

Mansfield, Ohio

"Henry" is that German-speaking girl from Ohio whose accent distinguishes her from the rest of the students. She is a constant source of entertainment, always making visits to another's room at the most unexpected time. One gets the idea that she is attempting to dodge the monitor.

ELLEN MAE RASEY

Bedford, Ohio

Ellen's broad smile and the cheery twinkle in her eyes are the outstanding expressions of her personality. She loves singing and is often heard humming a chorus. To the girls Ellen is particularly known for her ability to tediously mend "runners" in those precious nylon hose.

W. H. RICHARDSON

Pyatt, Arkansas

W. H. or "Dub" as he is known to his close friends, is one of those fellows who keep the mop closets clean and the hallways shining. He is also a prominent figure as a song-leader. The more southern the song, the better he likes it.

Our Heritage

ZANETTA ROBERTS

Columbus, Ohio

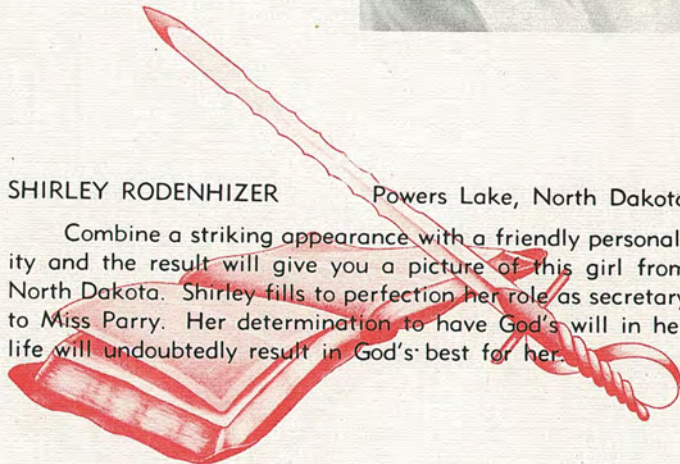

Should you happen to walk into the sewing room some afternoon, you would no doubt be greeted by Zanetta. Though busily engaged in tidying and cleaning things up, she is not too busy to stop and talk to you about the latest developments in the sewing room.

SHIRLEY RODENHIZER

Powers Lake, North Dakota

Combine a striking appearance with a friendly personality and the result will give you a picture of this girl from North Dakota. Shirley fills to perfection her role as secretary to Miss Parry. Her determination to have God's will in her life will undoubtedly result in God's best for her.

NELLIE ROESCH

Moosic, Pennsylvania

When illness strikes, there is Nellie, a capable, loving, comforting nurse, always ready to assist. Her tender care has been greatly appreciated by all the girls. We shall never forget this familiar figure with thermometers, hot-water bottles, ice-bags, balms and lotions.

Guardians of

WINIFRED ROPER

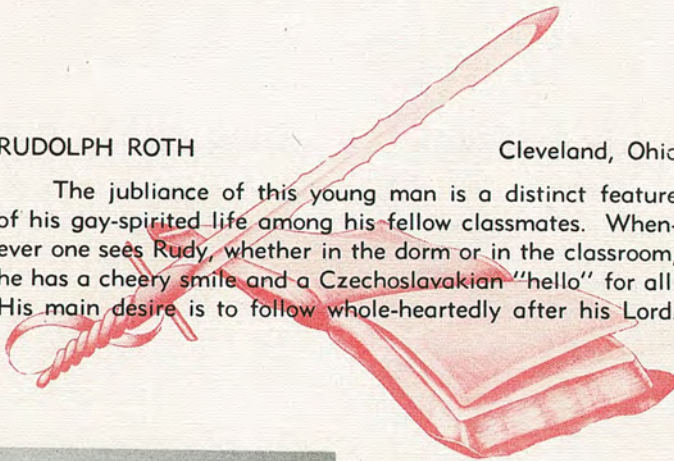

Pueblo, Colorado

A hostess with a charming smile—that's "Winnie." We could never explain the feeling in the warm-hearted greeting she gives us as we come through dinner line. It is a girl like Winifred that we are proud to have as the Secretary of the Student Missionary Band.

RUDOLPH ROTH

Cleveland, Ohio

The jubliance of this young man is a distinct feature of his gay-spirited life among his fellow classmates. Whenever one sees Rudy, whether in the dorm or in the classroom, he has a cheery smile and a Czechoslovakian "hello" for all. His main desire is to follow whole-heartedly after his Lord.

MERLIN RYKHOEK

Kellogg, Iowa

The girls recognize this blond, extremely good-natured gentleman as their polite Sunday bus driver. The students as a whole know him as a fellow who enjoys company. During meal time he can be found eating with that young lady of his choice.

Our Heritage

WANDA SANDERS

Sunray, Texas

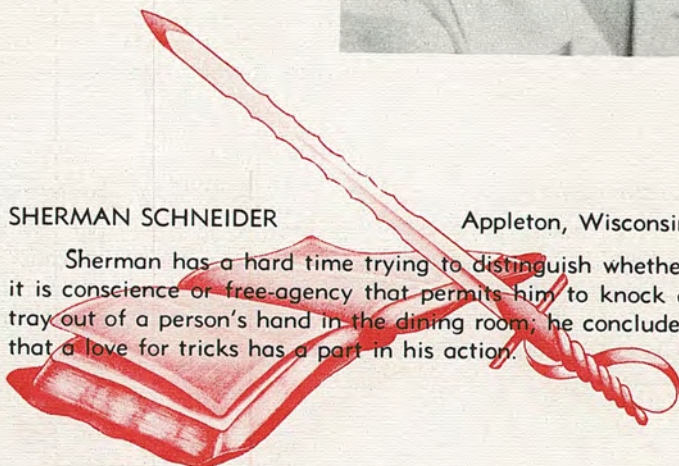

That look in Wanda's eyes reveals a nature which can change from serious concentration to humor and laughter in a moment's time. Wanda, a typical Texan, is the type of girl to whom you can entrust large responsibilities without fearing that she will falter on the job.

SHERMAN SCHNEIDER

Appleton, Wisconsin

Sherman has a hard time trying to distinguish whether it is conscience or free-agency that permits him to knock a tray out of a person's hand in the dining room; he concludes that a love for tricks has a part in his action.

VIRGINIA SEELYE

Hudson Falls, New York

Virginia is the constant companion of her roommate. They are so inseparable that one could almost mistake them for sisters. Demure almost to the point of shyness, Virginia is one of those girls who help set the kitchen in order after the meal is served.

Guardians of

ALBERTA SIMPSON

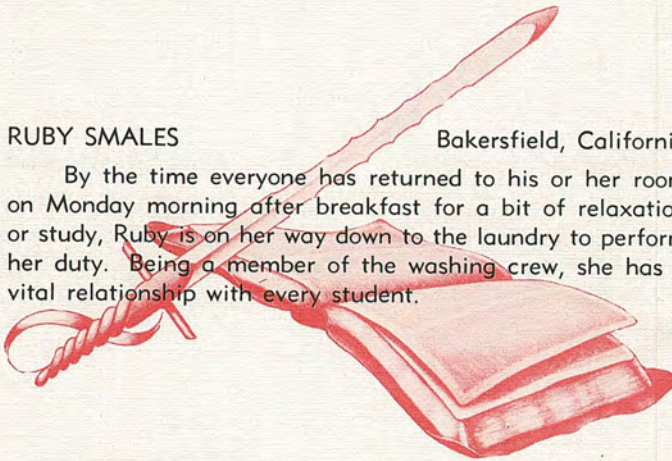

Baltimore, Maryland

Alberta's inevitable query to visiting missionaries is, "Do you know W. W. Simpson? He's my daddy!" Alberta was born in China and has lived among the Tibetans. She is taking a missionary course and hopes some day to be reunited with her father in that great land of countless millions.

RUBY SMALES

Bakersfield, California

By the time everyone has returned to his or her room on Monday morning after breakfast for a bit of relaxation or study, Ruby is on her way down to the laundry to perform her duty. Being a member of the washing crew, she has a vital relationship with every student.

GERALDINE SMITH

Smithsburg, Maryland

"Gerry's" ever-pleasing personality wins her the admiration and respect of all her classmates. She is student supervisor in the kitchen, and as the kitchen workers know, she is a girl who is capable of giving orders as well as taking them.

Our Heritage

DANA RUTH SNIDER (Mrs. Wm.)

Tucson, Arizona

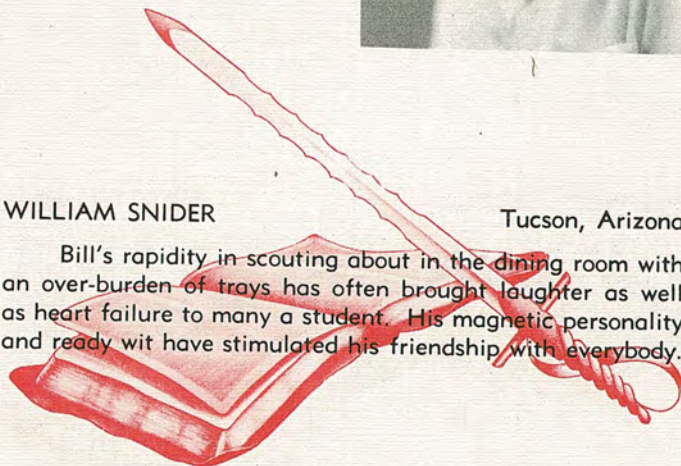

When we hear the words "God can do a-a-anything!" we know instantly that it's Dana Ruth speaking. Her short, snappy, yet forceful Friday-night testimonies will remain vivid in our minds. Dana Ruth is seldom seen alone. That man Bill is always at her side.

WILLIAM SNIDER

Tucson, Arizona

Bill's rapidity in scouting about in the dining room with an over-burden of trays has often brought laughter as well as heart failure to many a student. His magnetic personality and ready wit have stimulated his friendship with everybody.

FLORA SPRINKLE

Jefferson, Ohio

Flora has always impressed us as being a quiet, self-effacing individual who is decisive in thoughts and actions. She is very much interested in music. During the morning chapel services we often hear her talent expressed as she sits at the console of the organ.

Guardians of

ALBERTA STROUD (Mrs. D.)

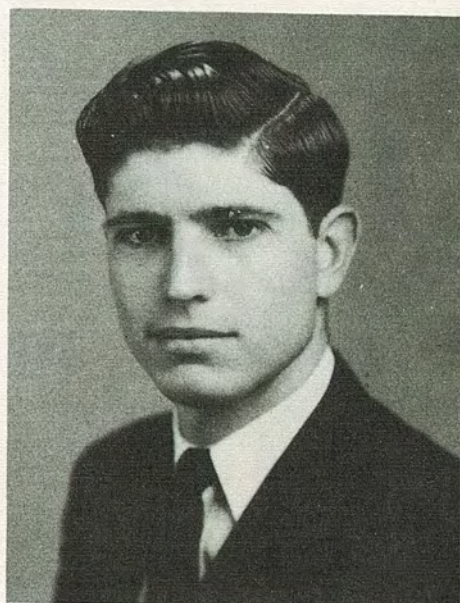

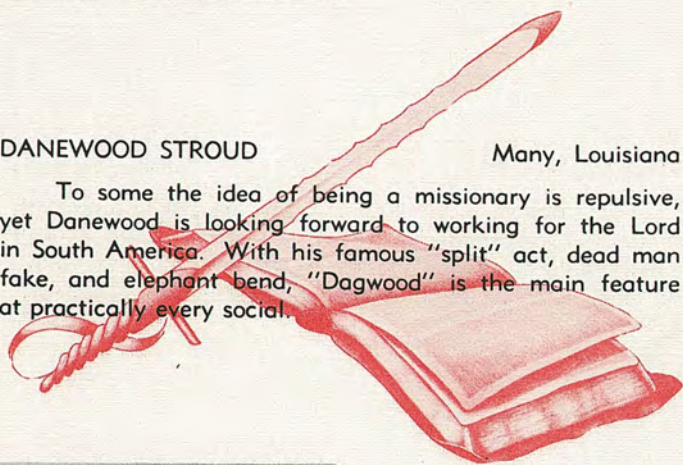

Many, Louisiana

That serious expression of Alberta's is quickly changed into one of laughter when her husband makes some humorous remark. She prefers to let the other half do most of the talking, but now and then you will hear a few words that reveal her southern drawl.

DANEWOOD STROUD

Many, Louisiana

To some the idea of being a missionary is repulsive, yet Danewood is looking forward to working for the Lord in South America. With his famous "split" act, dead man fake, and elephant bend, "Dagwood" is the main feature at practically every social.

MABEL TAKACS

Detroit, Michigan

If you live on the second floor in the ladies' dorm and you hear giggling or singing in the hall followed by an "Oh! Buh-ruther!" beyond a doubt it's Mabel. Her Hungarian, jovial spirit is not disguised; neither is her talent hidden, for her high soprano voice is an asset to Radio Choir and other vocal ensembles.

Our Heritage

EARL TAYLOR

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

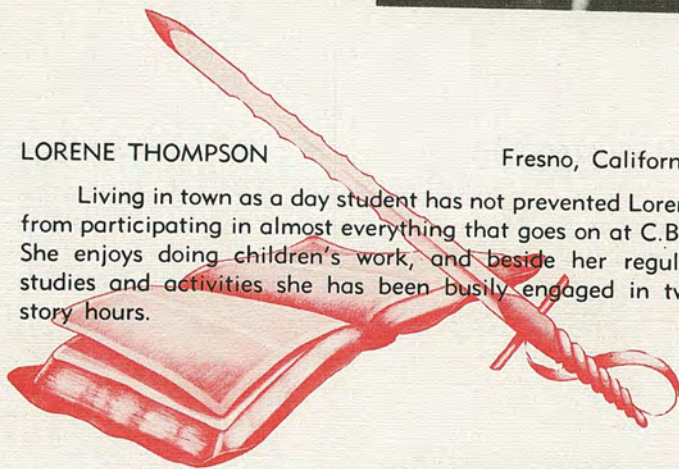

Earl's photographic tactics of stealthily creeping up on teachers in the classrooms for those "in action" shots have given us many laughs. As the CUP's photographer, he shows unusual technique in handling a camera. The "dark room" on second floor in the men's dorm is his favorite hide-out.

LORENE THOMPSON

Fresno, California

Living in town as a day student has not prevented Lorene from participating in almost everything that goes on at C.B.I. She enjoys doing children's work, and beside her regular studies and activities she has been busily engaged in two story hours.

THELMA TODD

Bloomington, Indiana

Thelma is one of the dominant figures in the Sweet Shop. The question, "What have you to drink today?" is very familiar to her. With a duty like hers, it's a wonder she doesn't name the flavors of pop and ice cream in her sleep.

Guardians of

ILA VIBBER

Kensington, Kansas

"We thank the Lord for the way He has been working out at Blue Star," Ila reports in Tuesday-morning chapel. To the students she stands out as an interesting speaker; to Brother and Sister Al Reid she is an excellent housekeeper.

JOSEPH WALDNER

Huron, South Dakota

Joe is a serious, quiet person whose calm disposition is apparent in class. He sits very attentively, never saying a word; but when it comes to a test, he proves that his thoughts are more ably written than spoken. His prayer life has proved a blessing to others.

HELEN WALDRON

Flint, Michigan

About 5:45 in the morning when some students are ready to turn over for fifteen minutes more of shut-eye, the tones of Helen's trombone start echoing through the halls. She has a reputation of being able to wake the most dead-to-the-world person.

Our Heritage

GEORGE WELCH

Bloomington, Indiana

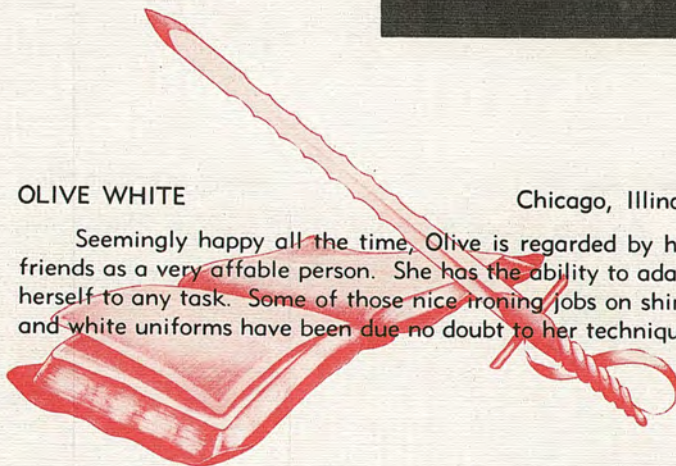

George advanced a step farther than most of his classmates when he entered a life-long partnership. He felt that having a date at every meal wasn't sufficient. Being superintendent of the dish crew in the kitchen ought to enhance his worth as a husband.

OLIVE WHITE

Chicago, Illinois

Seemingly happy all the time, Olive is regarded by her friends as a very affable person. She has the ability to adapt herself to any task. Some of those nice ironing jobs on shirts and white uniforms have been due no doubt to her technique.

EDITH WIGHT

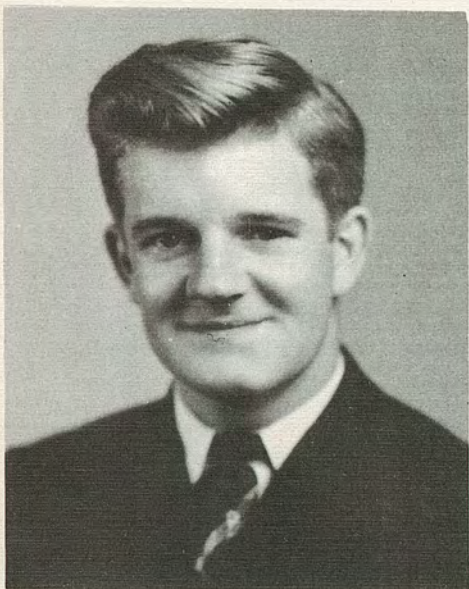

Gig Harbor, Washington

No matter how tall you are or how skilled you may be in basketball, with Edith guarding you, it is well nigh impossible to make a basket. She not only displays ability in sports but also shows talent in music. This was revealed when she won a scholarship for viola lessons.

Guardians of

HOWARD WILDE

Pleasanton, California

"Get subscriptions for the CUP!" we hear him say in General Chorus. Enthusiasm and Wilde seem to mean one and the same thing. He has that "go-to-it" spirit in appealing for cooperation in so great a task as his, that of managing sales for the CUP.

ANNABEL WILLIAMS

Montgomery, Indiana

Annabel's voice isn't exactly tremendous in volume, but it doesn't have to be; her smile speaks for her. She enjoys working with children, and on outstation she finds opportunity in this line of ministry by having charge of the Sunday School at Danforth.

MARJORIE WILLIAMS

Walnut Grove, Missouri

"Marjie" can usually be found working in the sewing room, when she is not busy in classes or occupied in her room. Sewing to her is more a pastime than a duty. Anyone who has seen her work knows that she is a skillful seamstress.

Our Heritage

THELMA WILLIAMS

Elwood, Kansas

If you walk into the CUP office some day after lunch, you will find Thelma ambitiously dusting the floor. Besides being the CUP secretary she is general clean-up girl. Thelma is to the CUP Staff what a balance staff is to a watch. She keeps things running smoothly.

CATHERINE WILLOUGHBY

Springfield, Missouri

To the students, she is known as "Kay," a girl full of vim and vigor, yet reserved in her ways. When leading a song service, this young lady can be heard saying, "Let us sing, 'Oh, I Want to See Him,' in Southern style." To be able to see Him is the passion of her soul.

MARGARET WILLOUGHBY

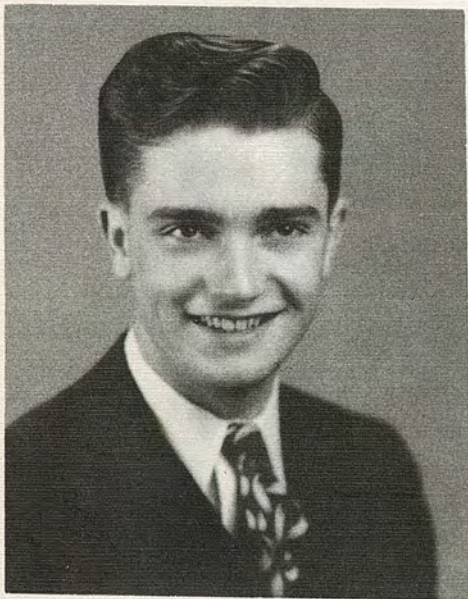

Springfield, Missouri

Margaret keeps the bus company well supplied with nickles, for when she isn't riding to and from work at the Gospel Publishing House, she's taking a short trip home. Margaret is different from her sister insomuch that she always likes to be going somewhere.

Guardians of

FLOYD WOODWORTH

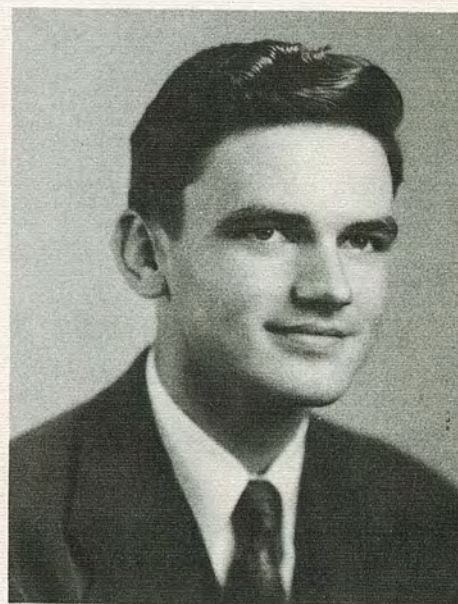

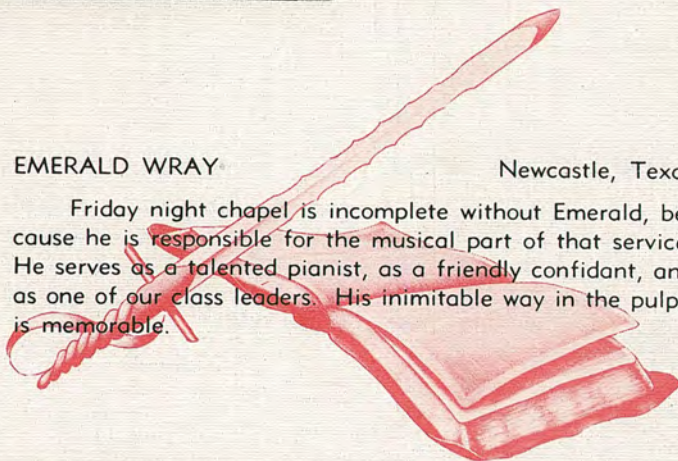

Pasadena, California

Floyd, as Editor of the CUP, exemplifies the aggressive business man as he scurries to and from the CUP office, trying to meet the next dead-line. Dictating letters, correcting literary material, coaching the lay-out editor, and checking the finances are only a few of his duties which he faithfully executes.

EMERALD WRAY

Newcastle, Texas

Friday night chapel is incomplete without Emerald, because he is responsible for the musical part of that service. He serves as a talented pianist, as a friendly confidant, and as one of our class leaders. His inimitable way in the pulpit is memorable.

MILDRED ZOPPELT

Berea, Ohio

"Milly," as we call her, is recognized as the efficient Literary Editor of the CUP. Her ways of "drafting" ANYBODY for ANYTHING shall ever remain with us as amusing—and clever. We shall also remember her talent as displayed on the accordion.

And O Thy servant, Lord, prepare,
A strict account to give!

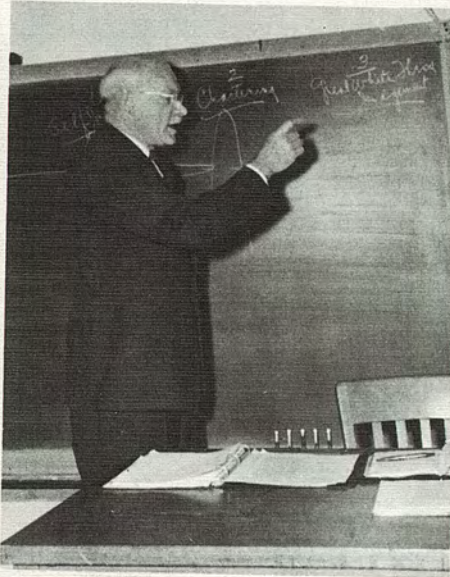

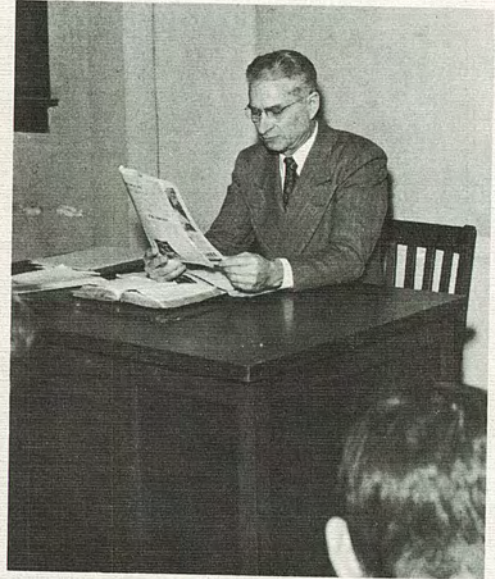

CLASS WORK...

THEOLOGY

Brother Evans expounds on I Cor. II in Doctrine II.

Brother Reed in Prophecy I.

To know God is to know His Word and to have an indwelling love for it. With the Bible as his fundamental textbook, a student in the Department of Theology searches the Scripture, finding in it the spiritual elements that sustain his life. By the washing of the Word he is purified and presented righteous in the sight of God. By his regular private hours of study in the precious Word of life, he is drawn into blessed communion with his heavenly Father.

Old and New Testament under Brother Bishop prove invaluable to Junior students.

PASTORAL

In Pastoral Theology.

Pastoral students as well as others find hidden truths in God's Word as they study Greek.

The responsibility of caring for the sheep lies upon the attending shepherd. He must lead them in pastures where they find abundance of food; he must protect them from every enemy. And so it is with the pastor. His responsibility is to care for his congregation, to feed them from the Word of God, to enable them to withstand the power of the enemy. The Pastoral Department trains its students to efficiently and effectively "Feed His sheep."

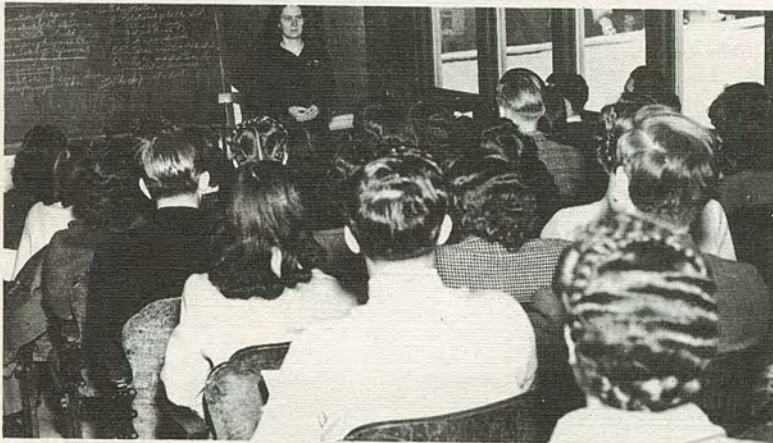

Brother Steinberg's Homiletics classes prove interesting as well as beneficial.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

"Cutting up" in Visual Aid.

Sunday School Organization under Miss Larson.

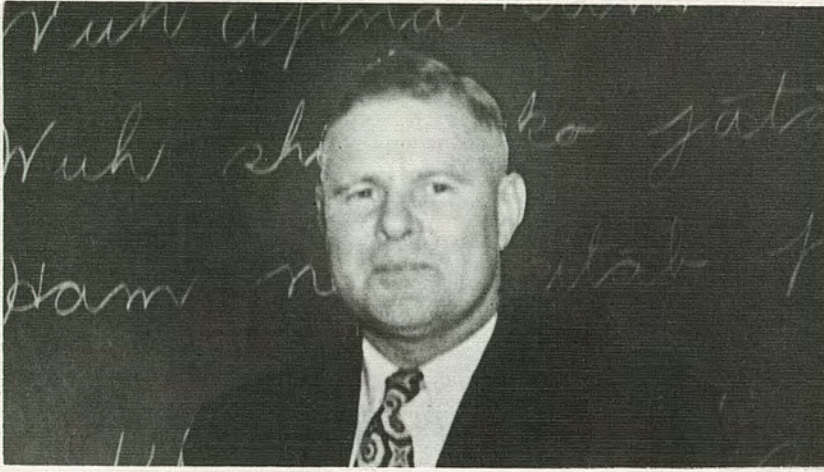

The Christian Education Department stresses the importance of Sunday School work and Bible training groups in the church. The course it offers emphasizes four specific branches — children's work, adolescent work, adult work, and administration. There is a need for those who will "train up a child in the way he should go," and those who will instruct men and women in the standards of living set forth by the Word of God. Instructors of this department impress each student with the growing need for the various ministries required in the local church.

Interest is shown on the faces of the students in Child Study class.

MISSIONARY

Brother Johnson teaches Hindustani.

Realizing that the coming of the Lord is at hand and that the Gospel must be preached to the uttermost part of the earth, the Missionary Department focuses its attention on preparing missionaries to carry God's Message to lost humanity. Teachers who have had experience in foreign lands present the varied needs as well as instruct their students in the vernacular of the different fields. C.B.I.'s concern for the heathen will never perish so long as the Missionary Department maintains its spiritual fervor.

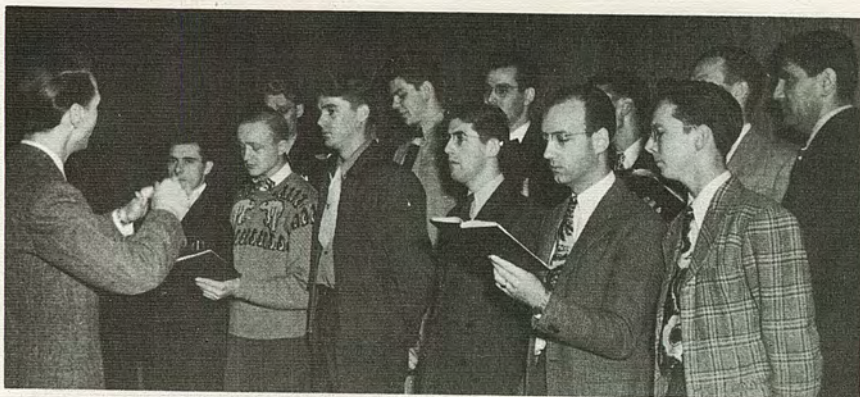

Looking in on Survey of Missions class.

These Nursing classes look interesting.

MUSIC

The Male Chorus sings for General Chorus.

A private piano lesson.

A student who desires a ministry in the field of music finds ample preparation in the Music Department. Both theory and applied music are taught. Opportunity is also given to participate in choral and instrumental groups, such as: band, orchestra, radio choir, A Cappella choir, men's and ladies' choruses. Students realize that through the medium of music souls can be saved and the name of Christ glorified.

Conducting classes prepare efficient song leaders.

ORGANIZATIONS . . .

MISSIONARY

The Student Missionary Band, organized in 1923, is composed of the entire student body of Central Bible Institute. Its purpose is to extend the Kingdom of God in all the world by daily, definite prayer; by cheerful, sacrificial giving; by whole-hearted consecration of its members, and by intensive study of the mission field. The officers of the Student Missionary Band are elected at the end of each year to serve during the succeeding year. The president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer are selected from the Senior class; the gentleman and lady curators from the Middler class.

This year's officers, in fulfilling their duties, have sought always to do that which is pleasing in God's sight. Our president,

JAMES CHESHER, President

The officers meet.

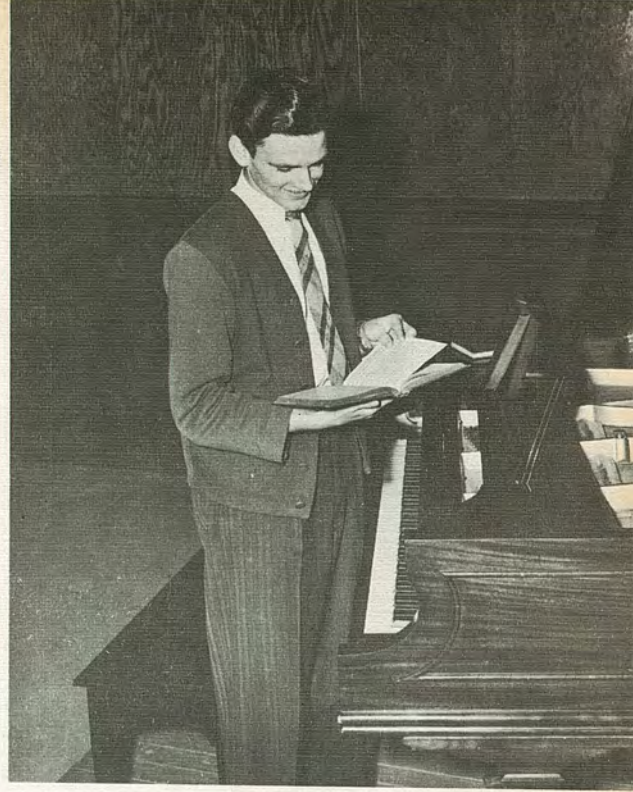

HELEN KOMOR, Treasurer

BAND

James Cheshier, has depended upon the guidance of the Holy Spirit as he has taken charge of each Friday night chapel service. Emerald Wray, vice-president, has endeavored to select instrumental and vocal numbers from which would flow a spirit of worship glorifying Christ only. Correspondence with many missionaries who wrote of the wondrous working of God on the mission field has been taken care of by Winifred Roper. The missionary pledges that amounted this year to $4,396.00 have been handled along with the Friday night offerings by our treasurer, Helen Komor. Ruth Burke and Kenneth Barney, curators, have alternately presented the need of the mission field during noon prayers each week day. The work and the lives of our officers have truly been an inspiration to every member of the missionary band.

EMERALD WRAY, Vice-President

WINIFRED ROPER, Secretary

KENNETH BARNEY and RUTH BURKE, Curators

ALUMNI

"Like a mighty army, moves the Church of God." The Alumni of Central Bible Institute are a stalwart regiment in the Pentecostal Division of that army.

In the world-wide conflict against the black legions of sin, these soldiers of salvation are in active service on every battlefield. On frozen tundra or through teeming jungle, in the homeland or on foreign strand, the Alumni of CBI are valiantly carrying out the Great Commission.

In recent years, the Alumni Association has demonstrated its value to Central Bible Institute. In 1945 a scholarship was established for the Middler man and the Middler lady who are judged to be the most representative students of their class. During the 1946-47 school year, the Association raised more than $1,000.00 toward the proposed Administration Building.

The Pilots' Club, C.B.I.'s "air force," has a vision of seeing God's Word sent to every land on "wings of the air." Its members, students who have had experience in flying as well as those who are just commencing to train, firmly believe that the airplane, which has been used during times of war to send men and women to an eternal death, can be used also to bring Christ's message of everlasting life to lost humanity. With this aim in view, they dedicate their ability to fly for the purpose of speeding the Light.

Realizing that the growth of C.B.I. in recent years warranted a school newspaper, several students and members of the faculty made it a matter of prayer. The result was the C.B.I. VISION, the first edition of which made its appearance on December 12, 1946. The staff, together with every student of C.B.I., desires each word of the VISION to be radiant with the love of God and every article as well as the efforts expended therein to be dedicated to the glorification of the name of Jesus.

STUDENT MINISTRY ...

Student Ministry Supervisors

MISS MARY JOHNSON, Asst. Supv.

Following in the footsteps of their beloved Master, students week by week go forth from the gates of C.B.I. east, west, north, and south to seek men and women for God. Ministering in forty small churches, institutions, factories, street meetings, twenty-six story hour groups, and through the medium of radio, they have fearlessly and zealously preached the unsearchable riches of Christ to thousands of hungry souls. Under the leadership of our supervisor, Brother John Johnson, and our assistant supervisor, Miss Mary Johnson, God is leading His workers into new places of endeavor.

JOHN JOHNSON, Supervisor

CUBA

Launched a little more than a year ago as an experimental project, "Sermons in Song" is now released over more than one hundred stations including outlets in Germany, France, Cuba, China, and South Africa. From many parts of the earth have come letters containing reports of salvation and telling of the blessing and encouragement which many have received through listening to this quarter hour broadcast. Because of its novel techniques and original pattern this Assemblies of God hour was awarded the Churchill Trophy by the National Religious Broadcasters. Through this recognition many stations have accepted our transcriptions.

C.B.I. students compose the Radio Choir which is augmented by several instrumental and vocal soloists and groups. The choir is under the direction of Les Barnett who also selects and arranges the music. A forward stride in 1947 has been the construction, in the north end of the C.B.I. Assembly Hall, of a modern studio containing the finest sound treatment for radio production. Equipped with its own control room, organ, and grand piano, the studio accommodates an eighty voice choir and makes possible the cutting of all records on the campus.

What an unprecedented opportunity challenges us! Let us earnestly pray that God may greatly increase and mightily use this Spirit-filled broadcast so that many more may hear this glorious Gospel and be turned from darkness unto light ere Jesus comes.

Personal Workers

AT THE BUS DEPOT

ON THE SQUARE

Street meetings afford ample opportunity, also.

It is Saturday night. The streets of Springfield are thronged with people seeking entertainment — that pleasure which brings only momentary satisfaction. In the train and bus depots the crowd is even greater. Travelers wait impatiently for their journey to commence. Amid the noise and confusion of it all, a personal worker is handing out tracts to those around him. Occasionally he stops and converses with a hungry soul. He tells him of the Saviour, of the Cross, of the atonement for sin through the blood of Christ. His listener believes the gospel message, opens his heart to Christ, and finds that satisfaction which only salvation can bring. It is incidents like this that reveal the fruits of personal work as zealous students cover the city of Springfield each Saturday night with the glorious gospel of Christ.

ATHLETICS...

Physical Education

Instructors Goss and Tiahrt talk it over.

Three hours of Physical Education have been included in the students' weekly schedule for the second semester. These are divided into one hour of class organized work and two hours of outside exercise. The athletic activities include football, basketball, softball, volleyball, soccer, and such minor sports as tennis, badminton, tenniquoits, table tennis, and shuffleboard. This well-balanced program provides an opportunity for every student to enjoy Physical Education.

During the course of the year basketball and football tournaments are held. These tournament games, sparked by keen competition and friendly rivalry, afford pleasant Saturday evenings of cheering and thrills in the gym.

Morning

"... in the morning will I direct my prayer unto Thee and will look up." Psa. 5:3.

Early each school day morning the faculty assembles for prayer, petitioning God for the needs of the forth-coming day and the spiritual welfare of the school. The effects of faculty prayers are felt as the student body meets for a time of worship before the busy activities of the day monopolize time and attention. Morning chapel is one of the most important phases of C.B.I. life. Nothing less than a daily miracle of God could bring the hearts of so many into one accord. Christ becomes the object of

"O come, let us sing unto the Lord:
let us make a joyful noise to the rocks of our salvation. Let us come before His Presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms."

adoration and is exalted through the medium of song, prayer, praise, and consideration of the Word. At times God graciously revives His work in our midst. Classes are laid aside while the hours of the day are spent sitting in His Presence. Faculty members, visiting ministers, and senior class members take part in the ministry of God's word. Each Tuesday morning reports are given by those active in outstation work and other branches of the Student Ministry Department. These reports inspire each student to praise God for what He is doing and to pray for that which He desires to accomplish.

Requests are prayed over each morning.

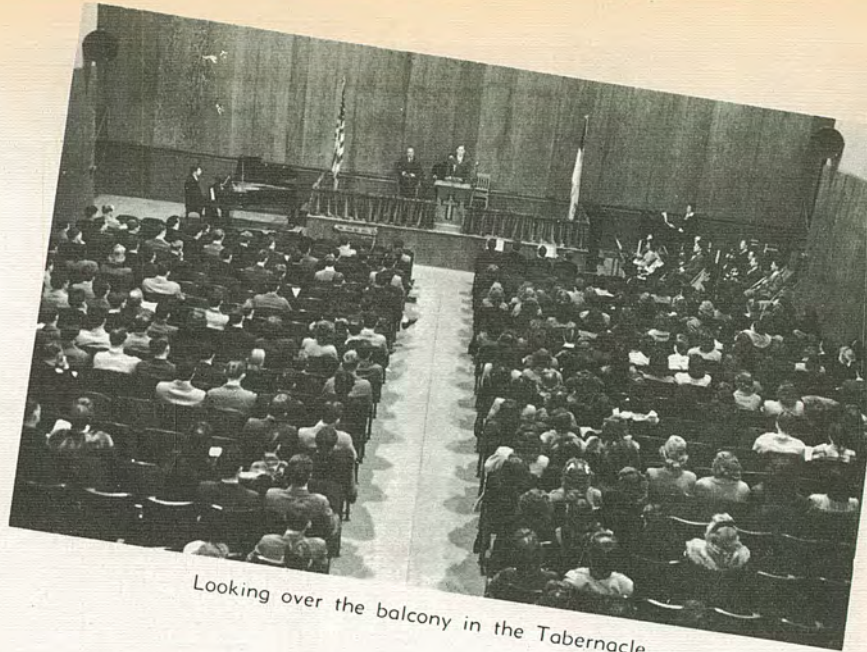

Wednesday morning a Senior gentleman speaks.

"I will worship toward Thy holy temple, and praise Thy name for Thy loving kindness and for Thy truth: for Thou best magnified Thy word above all Thy name."

Psa. 138:2

Friday Night Chapel

Looking over the balcony in the Tabernacle.

The students of Central Bible Institute live in anticipation of each Friday night chapel service. Certainly this weekly gathering of the student body, along with many outside friends, represents the crest of the spiritual tide which rises steadily throughout the week. The Friday night meetings are more evangelistic in nature than the morning chapel devotions. The absence of a time limitation announced by a ringing bell contributes much to the liberty characteristic of the students' own meeting. There is time for a rousing song service, led by a senior student, personal testimonies, and special musical numbers. The missionary band president is in charge, and it is his responsibility to engage the speakers each week. Since Springfield is centrally located and is General Council headquarters, the students receive the benefit of a delightful variety of speakers. It is customary for our principal, Brother Evans, to bring the opening and closing Friday night messages of the year; other faculty members minister occasionally. An offering is taken during the meeting, usually for missions with the exception of one each month for the Outstation Department. Services are also set apart for the partaking of the Lord's Supper. A good rule concerning Friday night meetings is, "Don't miss; you never know what's going to happen!"

The song service is always inspiring.

Noon Prayers

An opportunity to learn to yield to the Holy Spirit.

A bell rings and suddenly the quietude of the Administration Building is broken. The Assembly Hall doors are opened, and the students, forgetting their everyday cares, gather at 11:45 for Noon Prayers. The needs of various mission fields, presented by the lady or gentleman curator, burden the heart of each one. A mighty volume of intercessory prayer ascends to God in behalf of the missionaries, native workers, and the problems related to mission activity. An enlarged vision of the whitened harvest field is given them. The secret of true intercession is learned by the students as they allow the Holy Spirit to pray through them. They have a daily part in evangelizing this field which is the world.

Kenneth Barney, Gentleman Curator

Ruth Burke, Lady Curator

Quiet Hour

One day a week during Quiet Hour the students gather in class groups—the girls with Mother Bowie in her apartment and the boys with Brother Johnson in the men's lounge. Here they receive guidance and instruction which promote growth in their Christian life. Time is also spent in prayer for the various needs represented. During this time, when hearts join in one accord before Him, God manifests Himself through the answering of prayer.

The 7 o'clock bell echoes vibrantly through the halls of C.B.I. It's Quiet Hour and silence envelops the campus and buildings. The students retire to their rooms to spend a half-hour in communion with their heavenly Father. Through prayer and the reading of the Word they are drawn from the activities of the day into the stillness of His Presence. While they are kneeling there before the throne of God, their lives are purified and perfected according to His divine will.

As the heart of Christ was burdened for Jerusalem, so the heart of C.B.I. is burdened for the lost of the world. Every Friday afternoon the students band together in intercessory prayer for the salvation of souls in the uttermost part of the earth. They assemble according to the country of their calling and of their choice. Divinely energized prayer, that power which brings human redemption, can be manifested only as their lives are surrendered to Christ and yielded to the Holy Spirit.

North America has rightly been named the Citadel of Christianity. However, she has not lived up to the standards her name implies, and the impending need of a revival of pure Christianity is great. The North American prayer group bears this need before God in faith, believing Him to pour out His spirit in power upon the souls that populate this continent.

Bound and enslaved by Satan, diseased and sickened by sin, blinded and misled by manifold superstitions, the African vainly gropes in darkness for something—nay, for Someone to satisfy the intense longing of his soul. Having accepted the challenge this sin-cursed land presents, the members of the African prayer group travail in prayer for the salvation of Africa's perishing souls.

India

The land of India, stricken with famine and poverty, is a tremendous challenge to a missionary-minded Church. A number of veterans, who know the situation from first-hand experience, contribute much to the Indian prayer group. Each student in the group is vitally interested in seeing India fed not only physically but also spiritually on the living Word of God.

China

The passionate heart of Christ is satisfied as intercessory prayer pours from willing vessels for the souls of China's millions. Missionaries are returning to preach Christ in this war-torn land. Hesitation on our part to hold them before God in prayer may mean the loss of a God-given opportunity to evangelize China, and the retarding of the coming of the Lord.

During the war the cry from the continent of Europe was "Send us planes!" For the first tragic years the answer came too late with too little. Now the call is "Send us Christ!" The European prayer group, upholding our missionaries in prayer, is determined that the messengers of the Lord will be on time with the full gospel of Christ.

The Christ of the Cross is unknown to the Latin American, for his land is darkened by the teachings of Catholicism. Only when Christ, the Light of the world, comes can Latin America have life, hope, and freedom from sin. Prayer makes the miracle of the coming of the Light a reality. Answers to prayer are received time after time when the faithful Holy Spirit prays through the Latin American prayer group.

The power of prayer that wins the heathen of foreign lands for Christ is the same power that will bring America back to God. Desirous of seeing God's purpose fulfilled in these United States, the students gather in groups each Saturday night during quiet hour to pray for their respective home churches and districts. While praying for the needs of the homeland, many receive spiritual blessings in their own lives.
